Dear sister, we thank you both for all you have done forus, and you will be glad to know how well we are doing. Squire Lincoln has offered to let George work his farm on shares next year, and to let us have that house by the mill into the bargain. Our poultry has done well. I raised only three urkeys, but I send one to you, and to Squire Lincoln, as theirs all died off, with my best love.

Good-bye, dear Eliza.

POETR OLD FRIENDS

We just shake hands at meetin With many that come nigh We nod the head in greeting. To many that go by-But welcome through the gate Our few old friends and true

Then hearts leap up, and strai Keep open house for you, Old Fri There's open house for you! The surface will be sparkling,

Let but a sunbeam shine; Yet in the deep lines darkling The true life of the wine ! The froth is for the many, The wine is for the few Unseen, untouchel of any, We keep the best for you, Old fr The very best for you! The many cannot know us ; They only pace the strand, Where at our worst we show The waters thick with sand ! But out beyond the leaping Dim surge 'tis clear and blu And there, old Friends, we ar A sacred calm for you,

Old Fr A waiting calm for you. (From "Recollections of a Po LEGAL METAMORP
