

remained on the continent for four months. He then contracted yellow jaundice, and was evacuated to a hospital in England.

In Feb. he was discharged and sent to #1 C. A. S. C. R. V.

In March 1942 she accused married a girl he had been going out with, as the latter claimed she was pregnant. However, as it turned out, this was 26