

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF SAINT-CESAIRE

ROUVILLE COUNTY, CANADA.

This institution was founded by Rev. J. A. PROVENCAL, in 1869, and is conducted by the Religious of the Order of the Holy Cross. It combines the advantages of a Christian education with that of a commercial course, as is fully testified, by the position now occupied by the alumni and the continued patronage of the public in general.

The principal branches taught are both English and French languages, Penmanship, Arithmetic in all parts, Geography, History, Algebra and Geometry, Book-Keeping, Natural History, Literature and Rhetoric, Drawing, Telegraphy, the elements of Physics and Practical Logic.

BUSINESS CLASS

This class has been established for the purpose of giving to the pupils all the advantages of first class commercial education. In this department the pupils are accustomed to transact affairs, similar to persons engaged in a mercantile life, there being a Bank, Custom House Office, Post Office, Telegraph Office, etc., etc. Pupils passing a satisfactory examination in the different branches taught in this Department, receive Diplomas.

A railroad line connecting with the principal roads of the Dominion and of the United States, passes at a short distance from the college.
