February Suit Sale

Greater Reductions.

But two weeks remain of our February Sale and we wish to make a clearance of all the Campbell Co.'s Suits. To accomplish this we make still greater reductions:

All broken lots, left from the last two weeks' sales, have been put into one class and marked $5 without regard to the former prices which were

All other Campbell suits, except blacks, have been divided into two lots and marked $.7.50 and $10. These were $12 to $18.50. Blacks are reduced to $10 and $12, were $12.00 to 18.50.

Suits, 34 breast and short-stout (same size breast and waist) all half price---now $5 to $9.25. This is a straightforward effort to effect a rapid clearance and is the best opportunity ever offered in St. John to procure ready-tailored Clothing at merely nominal prices.

HOCKEY.

Amherst Defeated Crescents. AMHERST, N. S., Feb. 14.-The game of game, and for forty minutes it was anybody's game. Both teams depended entirely on combination playing. There was considerable body checking throughout, but nothing to mar the game. The game opened with five minutes' playing in the Crescents ice with four dangers shots at their goal, but all were stopped in good style by Campbell. After ten minutes' play Moffatt scored the first goal for Amherst. No further scoring was done in this half, but both goal keepers were called on to stop some hard shots. The was done in this half, but both goal keepers were called on to stop some hard shots. The second half commenced with the play about even. After a few minutes' play Monatt scored. Ten minutes after play Barclay scored the first for the Crescents. At this stage the game was pretty fast and Currey stopped three hard shots in quick succession. Twaddel scored twenty minutes after play. Barclay followed soon after with a goal for the Crescents. In the next few minutes Campbell was called on to stop two hard ones. Five minutes before time Curran shot the fourth goal for Amherst. H. Wood, captain of the Sackville hockey team, was referee.

OTTAWA NEWS.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—One of the most extraordinary actions of a minister of the crown is that which that truly independent journal, the Canada Gazette, chronicled yesterday. On the suggestion of Mr. Sifton an order-in-council has been passed granting the British Yukon Railway Company a free right of way for a telephone line between White Horse and Dawson. The company wants to build this telephone line, as it will be much cheaper than using the government line, which is the only present means of communication in the Yukon territory. The only apparent consideration which Mr. Sifton secures in return for this very valuable concession is that the dominion government, through its officers, may use the line at any time on official business only, free of charge, as compared with tolls which the government will lose on tolls which the government will lose on the telegraph service. This privilege is a mere bagatelle, From White Horse to Dawson by the river route the distance is 460 miles. The telegraph line follows this route, and once the telephone is built is will absolutely supercede the government line. In this way does Sifton protect the interests of the
