DISAGREEMENT AT THE ALTAR.

(South Africa.)
On a recent afternoon at Cape Town, when a bridegroom and wedding party were in the church waiting the arrival of the bride, the organ duly heralded her approach and the clergyman stepped forward to perform the ceremony. However, both bride and bridegroom showed a strange unwillingness to proceed, and finally the clergyman was made to understand that he was dealing with an odd pair.
Somebody suggested that the bride had come to the wrong church, which proving to be the case, she found her way to another sacred edifice, where a disconsolate bridegroom was impatiently waiting. The other bride then arrived at the first church and the couple were eventually rightly sorted.

BASE BALL.

ST. JOSEPH WON HANDILY LAST NIGHT

from the Franklins by 6 to 1. St. Joseph played by far the snappier game, but both teams were ragged at times. Nesbit started in to pitch for the Franklins, but went up in the air. Two base hits and two singles off him scored four runs for the boys in purple. In the second inning Duren took his place on the slab and played a good game. "Gumby" White was off form also. He gave four men bases on balls and struck one out. Burke's home run and Duren's picking up were the features of the game, which as a whole was too one-sided to be interesting.

The score:

FIRING CEASED.

No. 2 Co., 3rd C. A., finished their preliminary drill yesterday afternoon, but a pathetic incident prevented them from doing the competitive firing with which they would have finished up. About 4.30 in the afternoon all were taken suddenly by surprise to see a little girl running over to where they were at work, and crying that her mother, Mrs. Jas. McKillop, was dying and that the noise of the guns was causing her great distress. Out of respect to the sufferer the firing was immediately ordered to be stopped, but Mrs. McKillop expired shortly afterwards.

At 5 p. m. the company marched out of camp, and will return this afternoon to finish with No. 1 Co., their competitive practice. The firing of both companies will probably not occupy more than a couple of hours at the most.

For convenience of reference there is given below the date of arrival of the different companies into camp from August 1st, and the time of departure of each:

WILLING TO LET IT DROP.

(London Globe.)

Two Irishmen serving in a British regiment were good chums until Rooney was raised to the rank of sergeant. Forthwith his chum expanded, and from that time on he looked down on McGrane.

One day McGrane approached Rooney, and said, "Mike—I mean sergeant—'spos a private stepped up to a sergeant and called him a connected monkey, phad wud happen?"

"He'd be put in the guardhouse."

"He wud."

"Well, now, 'spos the private only thought the sergeant was a connected monkey, and didn't say a word about it. Wud he be put in the guardhouse?"

"Ave course not."

"Well, thin, we'll lave it go at that."

HOSPITAL COMMISSION.

The regular monthly meeting of the General Public Hospital commission was held at that institution yesterday afternoon. Chairman Maher presided and there were present: Dr. Walker, H. Elyard, Ald. McDermott, Dr. H. G. Addy, and Dr. Jas. Christie. Only regular business was dealt with.

The new children's ward is about completed and is being equipped. Dr. Walker has charge of the arrangements, and it is expected that work will be finished in about a week. Dr. Walker is acting for L. J. Almon, who has been appointed to the new range for the kitchen.

WILL BE MARRIED SHORTLY.

President Ian Hannah of Kings College, who is now in Western Canada, will continue his canvass in that province for the rest of the month. About the first of September he is expected that he will visit the United States, where he will be married. Dr. Hannah's father, the Rev. Dr. Chas. Hannah, will probably perform the ceremony. The lady is a graduate of Oberlin College and a resident of Ohio.

A report from Mrs. Scotia says that Rev. Mr. Jones, agent for Kings College, secured $100 for the endowment fund on a recent visit to Liverpool, N. S.

PHENOMENAL BREAKDOWN.

(M. A. P.)
Dr. Macnamara, M. P., has a new golf story. He says two other members had been playing a game on the links of a South London club. The "bogie" for the first two holes is 5 and 4 respectively (to non-golfers it may be explained that "bogie" is the number of strokes a good player is likely to make to get into the hole). Sitting down to tea, one of the members fell short a pistol, chased by the other two, and the golfing of the afternoon. At last he was overheard to address his companion as follows: "Ah, well! It's a mysterious game. Take this afternoon. I did the first in ten and the second in twelve. And then I went all to pieces!"

CHEERFUL PLAGIARISM.

(Boston Traveller)

A friend of the late Bishop Huntington was spending a Sunday in Edinburgh, and followed the crowd to the church of a celebrated preacher. At the close of the service he said to the clergyman: "That was a remarkably fine sermon."

The minister puffed up with pride, said, "Thank you, thank you."

"But," said the Boston man, "I have heard it before; it is one of Bishop Huntington's sermons."
