CLARKE WAS FOUND GUILTY

Second Jury Agreed on Verdict in 20 Minutes

Prisoner's Counsel Obtained Leave to Move for a Reserved Case—Prisoner Unaffected by Verdict

"On behalf of the jury I have to say that we find the accused guilty of the indictment of which he stands charged."

The foregoing was the verdict reached by the jury last evening and pronounced by the foreman, Robert J. Cox, when asked if they had reached a verdict by the clerk of the court. The jury were only out about twenty minutes.

J. B. M. Baxter in his masterly and eloquent address to the jury on behalf of the prisoner reviewed the evidence in an exhaustive manner and brought to light the weak points of the prosecution. Though the address was a very able one it failed to convince the jury that the crown had not proven their case.

The attorney general's address, though briefer, was just as comprehensive in its review of the evidence, and he closed with an earnest and eloquent appeal for them to eliminate sympathy from their mind and render a verdict on the facts.

His honor Judge Landry reviewed the evidence at length, and though his charge was fair and just it told strongly against the prisoner.

ONTARIO TEXT BOOK COMMISSION

Some Peculiar Arrangements Under Which Firm Got Control of Contracts

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Before the Ontario text book commission today Arnold W. Thomas of Copp, Clark and Co. gave evidence somewhat reluctantly. He said that his firm had taken the place of Thos. Nelson & Sons of Edinburgh in publishing readers for the former Ontario government and had paid $25,000 for the privilege for the first ten years and a royalty of 2-1/2 to 5 per cent. on the trade price or reprints thereafter. Subsequently Copp, Clark & Co. instead of paying the Edinburgh publishers $2,500 or $3,000 a year on the 2 1/2 per cent and 5 per cent. basis agreed to pay 10 per cent. on the retail price of all Ontario readers and promised not to seek a renewal of contract with the government behind Nelson & Sons' back. The agreement with Nelson & Sons was only for a period of contracts between the government and Copp, Clark & Co. Sage & Co. and Warwick Bros. & Rutter.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 25.—At the instance of Major Graham, London, Eng., and O. P. Boggs, Pittsburg, who were here three weeks in the interest of an English syndicate, looking over oil property of the New Brunswick Petroleum Co. a well was bored at Dover with good results. The English syndicate representatives selected a site at Dover, and at a depth of 523 feet oil sands were struck. The well was shot Wednesday. The indications are said to be among the best of the wells previously bored.

SAYS PROTECTIVE MEASURES HAVE RUINED MANY COMPANIES

MONTREAL, Oct. 25.—Decidedly interesting if not sensational evidence was given at the insurance commission today by T. B. MacAulay of the Sun Life, who made the unqualified assertion that several insurance companies in the United States have been ruined by the stringent protective measures adopted in that country to guard the interests of policyholders.

Rebates, policyholders' rights to vote and the value of various plans were the topics discussed. T. B. MacAulay, yet on the stand, declared against rebates, failed to see the need of giving voting power to policyholders, and was enthusiastic in his approval of deferred policies. The day's examination brought to a close probing into the affairs of the Sun Life, and it was announced that the Royal Victoria would be dealt with tomorrow and that the close of the sittings would terminate the affairs of the commission in Montreal.

The British, American and Canadian methods were spoken of during today's session, these methods being more particularly confined to tables, mortaluary and actuarial rule of selection and tables of experience. The British tables were generally favored, but it was said that American tables more closely approached the Canadian experience. Much of the examination was a search into the benefits of the three classes of policies, and this led up to what might be termed a lecture on insurance systems. In fact, a great deal of testimony given during the day was technical, highly so, and it would require one well versed in insurance matters to intelligently follow these lines of investigation.

A curious fact was elicited in the afternoon. It was that the very stringent means adopted in the United States to guard policyholders had driven companies to the wall. MacAulay asserted that 192 companies had gone into insolvency owing to protective measures, and that these companies might have survived if more latitude had been afforded them. The same restrictions exist in Canada, although to a lesser extent, and an opinion was expressed that it was the younger companies which were more likely to be affected; indeed, according to the witness, older and well managed companies would have no trouble at all.

JOHN O'MARA ARRESTED CHARGED WITH PERJURY

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—This afternoon the police office received word that John O'Mara was arrested in London by Sgt. Wallace of Brantford and Provincial Detective Reburn on a charge of perjury.

O'Mara in the witness box at the London election hearing asserted on oath that he had never been in Brantford or was connected in any way with O'Gorman in the election work there. He claimed to have no acquaintance with the men whose names are mentioned in the conspiracy charges, and suggested that it must have been another John O'Mara who was wanted.

KAISER REFORMS TERMS OF MOTORISTS

Henceforth in Germany a Chauffeur Will Be Called a Wagenfuhrer.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Kaiser has declared war on international automobile terminology, and has decided that, so far as his own country is concerned, the language of motordom shall be "made in Germany." He has caused an intimation to go forth that henceforth there shall be no such functionaries as "chauffeurs" in the imperial service, but that they shall be called "wagenfuhrer" (wagon-driver), and the expectation is that "garage," "chassis," and "conneau" will soon follow the chauffeur into oblivion.

Despite the modern German's fondness for words of foreign origin, especially from English and French, the Kaiser is the recipient of widespread praise for his efforts to "purify" the German tongue of foreign corruptions. It has long been one of his hobbies to accomplish this.

Soon after he ascended the throne he shocked court circles by ordering that the menus of state dinners should henceforth be called "speisekarten," and the courses served under German names instead of the traditional French names. His Majesty recently gave a fresh evidence of his desires in this direction by commanding that French terms should be struck out of the military code, substituting undefined German idioms.

Under the new automobile language the Kaiser's chief chauffeur must motor through life under the imposing title of "oberhofwagenfuhrer."

BRITISH SCHOOL TEACHERS COMING TO CANADA

MONTREAL, Q., Oct. 25.—Alfred Mosley, C. M. G., the British millionaire who is bringing five hundred British school teachers to Canada this fall for the purpose of studying educational facilities and methods on this side of the Atlantic, was in the city today and made arrangements with Principal Peterson to look after those who make a tour of Canada. Some of the teachers will arrive on steamers coming to Montreal until the close of navigation, when they will come via Halifax and St. John. All will travel in parties of five. Others will come via Boston and New York. Teachers have secured leave of absence from authorities in England, and their trip is expected to be productive of much good.

M. R. A. OVERCOATS for STYLE and QUALITY

Inside of a Fortnight St. John Men and Boys will be possessors of new overcoats, or thinking about donning that of last year or the season before. Let us say right here and now, we are Overcoat Specialists. Catering to the peculiar needs of the masculine gender in outer garments is our particular hobby. We have the goods to back up everything we say, too. There's nothing on this season's authentic fashion plates for men we have not got in Stock, as far as overcoats are concerned. That's saying a good deal 'tis true, but the coats carry out the assertion most handsomely.
