THE WEATHER

Forecasts—Moderate to fresh south-west winds; fair and milder today and on Saturday.

LOCAL NEWS.

Baptismal services will be conducted in Douglas Avenue Christian church this evening. A. J. McLeod will preach at both services on Sunday.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ethel Kater, to Mr. W. J. Treasethin, of the West End. The wedding takes place early in June.

Steamer Olenka sailed from Bermuda at seven o'clock this morning, having on board nine hundred and fifty packages of molasses for St. John.

The treasurer of St. Stephen's church Mission Band has received from Mrs. D. McArthur the sum of sixty dollars, proceeds of sale of a sale of fancy goods and candy recently held.

The veterans of the Fenian Raid will celebrate this evening in the Park Hotel. The South African "vets" will also attend. James Hunter will preside.

Samuel L. Warwick, the agent for the Canada Bill Posting Company, has been reported by the police for allowing a quantity of paper to blow about the Brussels street sidewalk.

The funeral of David Bradley, sr., took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from his late home on Summer street. Rev. James Crisp officiated and interment was in Fernhill.

On Monday a flock of wild geese arrived at Hopewell Cape from the south and apparently decided to go no farther at present, but settled down in the waters of the Bay of Fundy near the shore and is still in the vicinity—Moncton Times.

This is "ladies' night" at the Queen's Rollaway. The ladies skate the 6th band alone, and the gentlemen have their last seventh. This is the band that all the fast ones skate the limit, and the whistle is not heard from start to finish.

A prominent young marketman, coming down street a few mornings ago, met a one armed man at the Windsor corner, a one legged man in front of the Queen and a one eyed man a little further on, and he was very suspicious but that he wanted the rest of the people he met that day to be in possession of all their members—Courier.

Mayor Sears had an interesting caller at his office this morning, in the person of a Frenchman who can make smoke come out of his ears. This man applied for protection at the police station a few nights ago. He amused the policemen by doing several funny stunts. He hopes to get to Boston where he will receive employment in a museum. May Sears will probably arrange for his transportation as the stranger is "dead broke."

The Norwegian coal steamer, Dykstad, arrived in port this morning with a cargo for Messrs. R. P. and W. F. Stairs, local agents for the Dominion Coal Company. The Dykstad is of a peculiar build, the decks running abreast with the holds of the steamer. This gives her a very odd appearance and from a distance, gives the impression that two boats are side by side. The coal holds are raised from the decks and in this way the two portions are separated.

Oil escaping from a lamp in a small wash room at Chipman Memorial hospital Sunday morning became ignited, and threatened damage for a time. With great presence of mind the matron closed the door of the room and quietly notified the fire department, which arrived promptly and extinguished the blaze before many of the inmates knew of its existence. There were nineteen patients in the hospital at the time and any display of excitement might have had serious results. The damage to the room was slight—Courier.

INTERDICT AND LIQUOR DEALER WERE FINED

Man Who Persuaded Bartender to Give Him a Drink Went to Jail for a Day.

Robert Farrall, a tavern keeper on Simonds street, was this morning fined $10 for giving liquor on Wednesday, 13th, to James McKay, who is on the interdiction list. Farrall said that he knew McKay had been on the list, but as McKay claimed to be off it now he got the liquor. The magistrate said such an excuse would not save him, and the penalty was imposed.

McKay was asked what he had to say to being in the Farrall barroom. His excuse was that Farrall wanted some wood cut and he got a gill of gin for doing the work. The magistrate was not so generous, for he gave McKay twenty-four hours in jail for his part in the affair. Sergt. Kilpatrick made the information.

GEORGE N. MACDONALD. The death occurred at his home, 47 Rock street, this morning of George N. Macdonald, in the 44th year of his age. Mr. Macdonald has been ill for five years, and bore his suffering with great patience. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Mary McKee, youngest daughter of the late George and Elizabeth McKee, of this city, and two sons, Harry, aged 8, and Elmer, aged 3 years.

HAS LITTLE HOPE FOR ANY CHANGE IN TELEPHONE BILL

Mayor Sears, Back from Fredericton, Feels that the Protest from Municipalities Will Have But Little Effect

Mayor Sears returned last night from Fredericton, where he represented the New Brunswick Union of Municipalities in opposing the telephone bill. Town Clerk Magee, of Moncton, was also at the capital in the same interests. Mayor Sears and Mr. Magee yesterday met with Premier Pugsley and the whole matter was discussed. His worship pointed out that a government bill should not give any company power to invade a city or county and carry on an extensive business as a public service, without first having the consent of the municipal council. Other corporations have been forced to pay for the right of installing conduits and putting up poles, and Mayor Sears saw no reason why the city should enjoy a rental from the New Brunswick Telephone Company for these privileges.

The company had not guaranteed to give a cheaper service and therefore the city should derive a little from that large corporation. Regarding the bill allowing the N. B. Telephone Co. to increase its capital to $2,000,000, Mayor Sears regretted very much that the house had granted permission for the increase. He knows that the company managed to build fine exchanges and to extend its service on a capital of $450,000, and he does not know why it needs to now increase its capital by $500,000 after all this work has been done.

Premier Pugsley promised to consider the matters placed before him by Mayor Sears and Mr. Magee. His worship is not over-confident, however, that his visit to the capital will result in much good, as the general feeling in the house is against giving the municipalities power over the company. Mayor Sears speaking of the ward system bill stated that in all probability it will be passed. Nearly every member is in favor of it he says. "I don't think the delegation from the city will succeed in downing the bill." Continuing his worship stated that with the additional aldermen the city will be given a better opportunity to select good men, and he does not think that the majority of citizens are against the bill. Several members of the house are in favor of having the additional aldermen elected and cutting the salaries of each down to $150.

WERE NOT FIGHTING; THEY ONLY SLIPPED

Sheffield Street Women Were Badly Tangled—Policeman Ross in Grave Danger.

There were nine sad eyed prisoners on the police court bench this morning. Three of the number were charged with drunkenness and were fined $4 or ten days in jail each, while the others did not do so well. John Donohue for drunkenness was charged $3 or thirty days.

Joseph Kean, Alex. McElroy, of the steamer Athenia's pantry squad, and Bernard Winnick, an interpreter, were having a lot of fun in their own way on Water street last night, their chief offence being drunkenness and profanity. The two former were fined $3 or thirty days, but Winnick got off with $4 or ten days for drunkenness. Winnick informed Policeman Ross that when his brother, who is a lawyer in Glasgow, comes out to Canada, Ross will lose his job.

Catherine Gallagher became famous about a year ago, when arrested for drunkenness she pleaded in her own defence that as a woman was not a "person" and that she should be given her liberty.

SMOKING IN COURT. LIVERPOOL, March 21.—At the Becontree Licensing Sessions yesterday Andrew Johnson, the chairman, said: "I see there is one for present. If she does not object, I think you may smoke. Of course, the witnesses must not do so." A good many of those present, including several of the justices, once lit pipes, cigars or cigarettes.

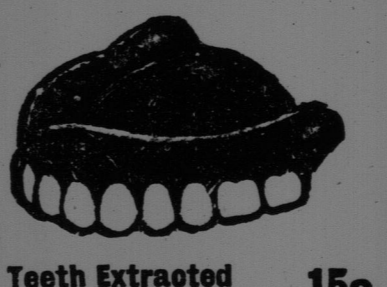

NEW YORK, March 22.—Thomas Houston, of St. Louis, beat Jerome Keogh, of Buffalo, last night, by 208 points to 121 in the first of a series of three games of 200 points each for the world's championship at continuous pool, and a side stake of $300.

BUFFALO, March 22.—A brick building used to manufacture muriatic acid at the plant of the General Chemical Company, on Buffalo river, was destroyed by fire early today. The offices of the company are in New York. Loss will be close to $100,000, fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

DEATHS. MACDONALD.—On the 22nd instant, at his late residence, 47 Rock street, after a lingering illness, George N. Macdonald, in the 44th year of his age, leaving a wife and two children, Harry and Elmer, to mourn their sad loss. Notice of funeral hereafter.

THE CHICAGO LIMITED WAS WRECKED AGAIN

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 22.—The Chicago Limited, from New York for Chicago, on the Pennsylvania R. R. was wrecked early today at Stewart, Pa., about 27 miles east of here. The engine and the first five cars were derailed but no one was hurt. It is said that evidence leading the officials to believe that the track has been tampered with, was found at the scene of the wreck.
