DEATHS.

MORISON.—At Margaree, Mar. 16th, suddenly of inflammation of the bowels, Trud Gordon beloved son of Mr. Hugh Morison. May the Lord sustain the suffering ones in their bereavement.

RUGGLES.—At Tremont, Kings Co., N. S., March 24th, Fred Ruggles, aged 16 years, son of Hall Ruggles. Death came suddenly, but the messenger brought the light of life to the dying one so that he was enabled to trust all with Jesus.

LINTON.—At Northfield, Sunbury Co., N. B., on 29th inst., after severe mental suffering for eight years, Martha J. wife of Robert Linton, aged 71 years.

BROWN.—At Red Bank, Chipman, N. B., on 20th inst., Isabella, wife of Andrew Brown, aged 71 years, leaving three sons and two daughters. She died trusting in Jesus.

RICHARDSON.—At South Bar, Cape Breton Co., March 30th, Thomas Richardson, aged 71 years. His father and mother have gone before, he leaves two sisters and a brother to mourn the loss. He died trusting Christ, and they who trust are safe.

CANN.—At Pleasant Valley, Lot 21, P. E. I., March 31st, after much suffering of sciatic and liver trouble, borne with patience and resignation, Samuel Cann, aged 60 years, leaving a sorrowing wife, three daughters and one son to mourn their loss. His son, S. J. Cann, is studying at Acadia for the ministry.

LOCKE.—At Lockeport, Feb. 26th, of dropsy of the heart, Harry, beloved son of Enos and Jane Locke, aged 33 years. Of a kind, a sympathetic disposition he had a host of friends. He leaves a wife and one child, an aged father and mother, two sisters and three brothers to mourn their loss. May God sustain them.

MCNEVIN.—On Wednesday, March 9th, after but a very brief illness, Grace, beloved daughter of Bro. and Sister Nicholas McNevin, of Bonshaw, P. E. I. Grace was a particularly amiable young woman. She had sought and found the Lord years ago. She was one of the first fruits of Bonshaw. Although her departure was comparatively sudden, yet she was found prepared to go. She passed away very happily leaning on her beloved. In the enforced absence of the pastor, Pastor Browne, of North River, very efficiently officiated. Our brother and sister and the rest of their family have the deepest sympathy of the church and community.

MILLER.—At Bear River, Annapolis Co., Jan. 18th, 1898, Mrs. Thomas Miller aged

54 years. She leaves a kind Christian husband and son Vernon L. Miller to mourn their loss. It was hard to part with one so good, and she would have liked to live longer for those she left, but said it was all right as God made no mistakes. She was a devoted Christian mother and true wife and died in peace. The home is now without a mother and what is a home without a mother.

SIMMONS.—Saturday night, April and at his late home, Westmoreland, P. E. I., Dea. Wm. Simmons, in the 71st year of his age. He had been failing in health for over a year but we did not expect to lose him so soon. He was around the house within two days of his death. He was a man who will be sorely missed in the community, being always on excellent terms with his neighbors. He will also be sorely missed in the Tryon church, of which he had been a faithful member and deacon for many years. We cannot estimate his loss in the home, it is indeed great. He passed away a very happy man, knowing that he was going to his Saviour. His aged widow and children have our deepest sympathy.

HOLMES.—At Upper Perreux, Sunday, April 3rd, Delos Holmes, aged 50 years. Though in failing health for some time the passing away of our brother was very sudden. He had been away all winter, just reaching home the day before his death. He came home to die and dying with him was going home. The church at Perreux has met with a spiritual loss in the removal of our brother. Humble, believing, devoted and true, Bro. Holmes possessed in a large way all the elements that go to the making of a consistent Christian. The God of grace was with him in life and the God of grace will be with the sorrowful wife and the little child whom he has left behind.

DOW.—Ass Dow Esq., of the parish of parish of Canterbury, York Co., died at the residence of Alonzo Dow, near his old homestead, on Friday the 18th of March, and was buried in the old cemetery a short distance from his former residence. Brother Dow was a well known and popular man in both York and Carleton Counties, in particular. He was a very prominent man in the community. He amassed about $50,000 worth of property, which he disposed of during his life to charitable and philanthropic objects, excepting a bare sufficiency to support and bury him. His burial services were conducted on Lord's day the 20th, by Rev. J. C. Bleakney of Woodstock, who having chosen Rom. 10: 4, for his text, preached the old gospel and the sentiment of the deceased. Mr. Dow lived to a ripe old age, being 88 years old next May. The very large and attentive congregation which attended his burial demonstrated the respect in which he was held by the multitude of his acquaintance.

TINGLEY.—At Albert, N. B., March 26, Dea. Rufus Tingley, aged 61 years. Our brother was confined to his home about ten days when death came and relieved him of his sufferings. He waited patiently for the hour of sweet release, although by times his sufferings were intense. His father, known by many in the province as Father Green Tingley, still survives him, he also leaves a sorrowing widow, three children, one brother and sister. Our brother professed faith in Christ about forty years ago and united with the Hopewell Baptist church. About fifteen years ago he was elected to the deaconate, which office he filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the church. He was one of the most generous and cheerful contributors to the various branches of God's cause. He believed in the title system and practised it for years. The church, community and denomination have sustained a loss that is not easily replaced. Not only will the church miss him from a financial standpoint, but he was one of the faithful ones in the regular services of the church, always at his post when health and circumstances would permit. We meekly yield to God's unerring wisdom, but not without saddened hearts. His funeral was largely attended. The pastor was assisted in the services by Evangelist Davidson, Pastors Bishop Foster (Presbyterian), Comben (Methodist). A sermon was preached by the pastor from Ps. 17: 15.

HUNT.—At Greenfield, Queens Co., N. S., April 1st, Deacon Stewart F. Hunt, aged 65 years. For some time his health had been impaired but death came more suddenly than was expected. Early in life Bro. Hunt was converted and united with the Greenfield Baptist church. For nearly forty years he served as deacon and also for nearly the same length of time, with some short interruptions, he was Superintendent of the Sabbath School. He was an active Christian worker, faithful in the discharge of his duties, only sickness or something unavoidable could keep him from his place in the house of God. He will be greatly missed in the church and community. He leaves a widow, three sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of a kind and much beloved husband and father.
