

In spite of the inclement July weather, those of our citizens who custom it is to patronize the summer home along the river and in the suburbs, have bravely gone forth in search of outdoor life, clinging mentally to the familiar adage "every cloud has a silver lining," but so far this month with few exceptions the days have come and gone with but little showing of anything but clouds—and again—clouds. The Cedar, one of the most popular summer resorts on the St. John river is this year, as formerly, the attraction for visitors not only from St. John but from Provincial and American centres. During the past week the following guests were registered there: Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Brown, New Glasgow; and Miss S. Brown, Mrs. George Flemming and children, Mrs. J. R. Haycock and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. Nixon, Miss Margaret Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Macle, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wozniak, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Master and Miss Louise Flemming.

On Thursday this week, several ladies left for Weekham to spend two weeks. The party included Mrs. A. Austin, Miss Austin, Mrs. Charles Palmer, Mrs. Lawrence Miss Anne Hies and Miss Alice Hies.

Congratulations are being extended to Lieut. Col. and Mrs. J. H. Kaye, on the birth of a daughter on July 2nd, at Toronto.

Mrs. Sherwood Skinner entertained very informally on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario. The guests were Mrs. William Pugsley, Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod, Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mrs. Chas. Coster, Mrs. Percy W. Thomson, Mrs. A. H. Fowle, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Walter Foster and Miss Bayard.

Mrs. H. C. Schofield entertained a few friends informally at a picnic dinner at her summer home at Westfield, on Wednesday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Simon Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson and Premier and Mrs. J. E. Foster.

Mrs. Lorenzo G. Crosby, Gormain styled, gave an informal luncheon on Tuesday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kelly of Boston, who is her guest. Among those present were Mrs. H. W. Schofield, Mrs. Frederick Crosby, Mrs. J. L. McAvity and Mrs. William A. Lockhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Rabbmann, Miss V. Whitaker, Miss Jackson and Lieut. Rabbmann, were dinner guests at the Manor House on Thursday evening last week.

Mr. John G. Knowlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton and Mr. J. Edward Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Ellis recently passed very successfully examinations for entrance to the Royal Naval College, and leave in the near future for Great Britain to take a three year training course.

Mrs. George T. Polly was the hostess at a very delightful luncheon at her picturesque home "Van Harn" at Riverside recently, in honor of Mr. Porter, Mrs. H. Porter, Bear River, N.S., and Miss Helen Vanwart of Fredericton.

Mrs. Polly also entertained at an informal musicale in honor of her guests, Miss Vanwart, who was studying music in Germany when war was declared, is the possessor of a rich soprano voice and added much to the pleasure of the guests by her vocal selections.

The many friends of Mrs. David Macge, Quispamsis, regretted exceedingly to hear that she had through an accident fractured her knee. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Macge and hopes for her speedy recovery.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Blake McInerney on the arrival last week of a little son at their home in Montreal.

Mrs. William Pugsley entertained a few friends on Monday in honor of Mrs. William Pugsley, Jr. of Montreal, at the tea hour Mrs. Gilmore Brown presided. The guests were Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. Simon Jones, Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. S. M. Robinson, Mrs. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. C. P. Fowle, Fredericton, Mrs. Gilmore Brown, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown.

Captain Ralph Robertson's many friends were glad to hear this week more favorable reports of his condition, and hope he may be speedily restored to his usual good health.

Madame Kathleen Purling-Schmidt, accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Purling, arrived from Boston on Thursday and proceeded to their summer camp "Sedona Inn," at Red Head, Madame Purling-Schmidt, last week contributed to the programme at the opening of a costly new house at Nashua, N. H., and was accorded a most flattering reception.

News of the recent honors conferred on two St. John officers by His Majesty the King at Buckingham Palace, was shared with pleasure by friends in St. John. To Major Frederick Thomson, C. A. S. C. the D. S. O. and to Major Walter Harrison, artillery, the Military Cross.

The following from the Vancouver Province, June 30, is of interest to many old friends here: "Wearing the double wings and crown of a lieutenant in the Royal Air Force, Mr. R. P. Stockton, barrister, of the firm of Taylor, Mayers, Stockton and Smith, is in the city to day preparing to proceed overseas. His training as an aviator in Canada and the United States is now complete, and he has been awarded his commission. He expects to have a short course in England in "stunts" and in the newer types of machines, before proceeding to the battlefront, and is engaged for a few days in attending to his affairs in Vancouver."

Lieut. Stockton is a son of the late Dr. A. A. Stockton, and formerly resided with his parents in this city.

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Dental Society was held on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Province, June 30, is of interest to many old friends here: "Wearing the double wings and crown of a lieutenant in the Royal Air Force, Mr. R. P. Stockton, barrister, of the firm of Taylor, Mayers, Stockton and Smith, is in the city to day preparing to proceed overseas. His training as an aviator in Canada and the United States is now complete, and he has been awarded his commission. He expects to have a short course in England in "stunts" and in the newer types of machines, before proceeding to the battlefront, and is engaged for a few days in attending to his affairs in Vancouver."

Lieut. Stockton is a son of the late Dr. A. A. Stockton, and formerly resided with his parents in this city.

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Dental Society was held on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

Mrs. M. J. Harrington accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ellen, left on Tuesday and Wednesday, in St. John. On Wednesday afternoon, after the regular business of the meeting, about fifty members of the society and their wives enjoyed a motor drive to Hampton and on their return enjoyed tea at the home of Dr. J. G. Leonard, the retiring president.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. C. P. Holden, Miss Phyllis Taylor and Miss Dolly Brown spent the weekend at Government House the guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

Lady Hazen has returned from a pleasant visit to Fredericton.

Among the hostesses, who entertained informally in honor of Mrs. Edna of London, Ontario, this week were Mrs. J. M. Christie, and Mrs. George F. Smith.

ness this week in Montreal, and hope for better news of his condition in the near future.

Miss Helen Wilson, Queen Square left on Tuesday evening for Halifax to visit relatives.

Mr. Joseph Ellis of Vancouver arrived in the city on Friday, and is the guest of Mrs. J. V. Ellis, in Princess street.

Dr. H. L. Spangler who attended the national convention of Osteopaths at Boston, returned home on Saturday last.

Miss Rosemond McAvity and Miss Dowling left on Saturday for Toronto.

Mrs. George McAvity is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McAvity at Rothesay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Macneil are spending the week-end and the guests of Mrs. Mont McDonald, Woodman's Point.

Mrs. Noel Judah and little son are the guests of Mrs. A. G. Bishop, Mecklenburg street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Fitts of South Duxbury, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine at Westfield.

Miss Rayville, R. R. C. Matron-chief of the C. A. M. C., nursing staff arrived in the city yesterday and is the guest of Matron Edith Hegan, Hazen street.

Miss Lulu Berton arrived from Boston on Wednesday and is visiting for a month her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Berton, Summer street.

Mrs. J. W. McKean and Mr. Douglas McKean spent the week-end at Mamp-ton the guests of Mrs. T. William Barnes.

Nursing Sisters A. A. Burns, E. S. Kerr, B. L. Babbitt, (Fredericton) J. L. Smith, J. Peters and E. M. Delaney, left for Halifax on Tuesday.

Mrs. George F. Smith left on Thursday for St. Andrews.

Mrs. R. M. Hazen and Miss Hazen left on Wednesday for Digby, N. S.

Mrs. J. S. McLaren and Miss Mary McLaren left on Tuesday evening for Halifax.

Miss Ruth Simonds of Montreal who has been the guest of Mrs. Heber Vroom, left on Monday for Halifax.

Miss Isabel Jack and Miss Barbara Jack are spending two weeks at the Kennedy House, Rothesay.

Members of the V. A. D., who left this week for Halifax were Miss Jeanette Bridges, Miss Doris de Veber, Miss Rowan, Miss Hill, Miss McKean and Miss Jean Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Elkin and Mr. and Mrs. William Lockhart have returned from a motor trip through Albert County.

Mr. Eason arrived on Monday to spend a few days with his family at Rothesay.

Dr. Morris and family are guests at the La Tour Apartments.

Colonel Dos Rosters has received the appointment of A. D. of supplies and transports of Valcartier Camp for the summer.

Mrs. Albert Gregory and family of Fredericton are summering at Woodman's Point.

Mrs. Timmerman has closed her cottage temporarily at Duck Cove and is visiting her home in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Braeme who have been guests at the Royal, left for their home in St. John's, Newfoundland, on Monday.

Mrs. Richard O'Brien returned on Wednesday from a short trip to Montreal where she was the guest of Mrs. R. S. Thomson at the Linton.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Donville of Hamilton, Ontario, in the death of their son, Lieut. William Kilcock Donville, R. F. C. Lieut. Donville was a grandson of Mr. William M. Jarvis.

Capt. Hubert Stethem has been transferred from Niagara to St. John, N. B. Mrs. Stethem and little son, who are in the near future to join Capt. Stethem here.

Mrs. Steeves, wife of Prof. Steeves, of the U. N. B., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eber Turnbull, Princess street.

The sincere sympathy of many friends here goes out to Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bamford, formerly of this city, in the death of their only daughter, Florence Odell Bamford, which took place on July 7th at Toronto.

News of the death on July 8th at Onneton of Mrs. Orlando H. Warwick was heard by many old friends with regret. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Verner McLeellan, Rosedale street, have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in the sudden death of their only child, Flight Lieut. Harris O. McLeellan, which took place this week. Lieut. McLeellan had many admirers in his home city who mourn with his parents in their sudden and irreparable loss.

Mrs. Margaret Ready announces the engagement of her grand-daughter, Edna Josephine Ready to Major Outhbert J. Morgan.

PISTOL MAKERS OUT
Springfield, Mass., July 12.—Between 500 and 600 employees of the Smith and Wesson Company, pistol makers, struck today.

Many friends of Mr. Frederick A. Peters regretted to hear of his ill-

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, July 12.—At the Red Cross meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Mariel Robertson, the secretary, gave a very interesting report for the month of June. Mrs. W. E. Flewelling is added to the life membership society. The collectors in connection with the drive for 14,000 lbs. moccasins, fine shoes and the market stall is attracting many buyers. Miss Allison, Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Miss Brock and Mrs. L. Fowler were in attendance at the principal table. Miss Madge Robertson had charge of the flowers. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. J. R. Thomson were cashiers. Last week (the first day) over $30 was gathered in. This week the result was $33. Miss Pither was hostess at the Tuesday afternoon Red Cross tea. The attendance was large.

Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert motored to the Cedars one day last week, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Macdonald and Miss Florence Gilbert. Mrs. W. G. Fagley of Montreal, and her little son Willie, are guests of Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley.

Last Wednesday Miss Edith Barnes returned from several weeks' visit to Boston, and is at Riverside for the summer.

Rev. W. R. Hibbard, Mrs. Hibbard and family, who were recently called to her home and broke her leg, will be glad to hear she is somewhat improved, though still suffering pain.

On Tuesday Master Jack Thomson was able to come home from the St. John hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ritchie and little daughter, Miss Edith, moved from St. John to Riverside, to spend the rest of the summer.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. William Macdonald entertained a few friends at bridge at Government House. Miss Edith Barnes of St. John was guest of Miss Edith Barnes at Riverside.

Lieutenant-Colonel Perley and Mrs. Perley of St. John were weekend guests of Major and Mrs. J. S. Frost at their summer home, Fair Vale.

Miss Peard Watson, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hibbard on College Hill.

On Wednesday Mrs. Walter Johnson arrived from Montreal to visit at the home of her brother, Mr. John Belyea and family.

To visit Boston Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregory and their daughter Ellen, left Rothesay this week.

Miss Almota Mullin of St. John, is at Rothesay visiting Mrs. F. J. Nisbet.

On Wednesday evening the parishioners of St. Andrew's, Hammond River, French Village and Smithtown met in the hall at Nauvaukewauk to say farewell to Rev. J. H. Holmes, who has been rector, and is leaving here to become rector of St. Jude's church, St. John, West. A well filled purse was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and to little Miss Christine a piece of gold from the W. A.

St. Stephen, July 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stannard and young son, have arrived from New York and will spend the summer at the home of Stannard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Baskin at their home on Mark street.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean of Canada, St. W. were guests of Mrs. Archdeacon and Mrs. Newnam, at Christ Church rectory. On their return to Canada Miss Alice Newnam accompanied by her son, will spend the summer with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell and young daughter Dorothy, have returned to St. John after St. John's church, St. John, West. A well filled purse was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and to little Miss Christine a piece of gold from the W. A.

Mr. Frank McChesley of Brocton, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McChesley at their home on Water street.

Mrs. Ivy S. McWha of Bangor, is the guest of Mr. Walter McWha at her home on Water street.

Miss M. Olivia Maxwell of Moore's Mills, was the guest, during the week of her friend, Miss Theodora Stevens, at her home on Water street.

Miss Almota McChesley is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McChesley at their home on Water street.

Sergeant and Mrs. Christopher A. McKay are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wescott and young daughter Pauline, are spending a few weeks at a summer camp, where she is attending a summer school.

Miss Winifred Smith is the guest of her aunts, the Misses Grimmer at their home on King street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Macdonald and family are spending a few weeks at Meddymy Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. J. Graham are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Ruth Clarke, who has been on the teaching staff of a private school in Newton, Mass., during the last year, is spending the summer months with her mother, Mrs. Ruth Clarke.

Mr. Sam. Webber of Harvard College, is spending his vacation at his home in Canada.

Harold M. Clarke and family of China, are spending the summer with relatives in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. Samner Hurd of Fredericton, are spending the summer at their home on King street.

The home of Mr. John Sears on Lafayette street in St. John was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Marion Murchie left this week to attend a summer camp, where she has been made one of the assistant instructors.

Miss Georgina Grimmer entertained a number of friends at her home on Union street, on Thursday evening. Among the guests were Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. Gates Murchie, the Misses Christine Douglas, Lila Moore, Phyllis Watson, Helen Scott, Basile Grant, Marjorie Murray, Glenna Dinmore, Marjorie Grimmer, Hazel Smith, Jean Goucher, Alice Gregory, Mary Henderson, Marion McIntosh and Reta Nicholson.

Miss Esther Clarke of Fredericton, is the guest of Miss Jean Goucher during the week.

Mrs. Clark, who has been spending the summer months with her daughter, Mrs. M. C. Buchanan, has returned to her home in St. John.

Miss Glenna Dinmore has been visiting the Misses Roach in Sussex, and spent Sunday in St. John the guest of Miss Alice Dawson.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, July 12.—Mrs. Clarence McN. Steeves gave a small but very pleasant tea in honor of Mrs. Bruce Miles of Cranbrook, B. C., last week, who is here with her three little daughters visiting Mrs. Courtland.

The Misses Lynch returned home on Saturday after a six weeks' visit in New York at the home of Mrs. Byrnes of Bathurst, is the guest of Mrs. Harry for a few days.

Mrs. O. S. Crockett entertained at a luncheon in honor of her son, Capt. Judah of Edmonton, Mrs. Alex. J. Thompson was the prize winner. The guests included Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. H. B. Brown, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Mrs. Gerald, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. Hall, Miss Winslow, Mrs. Thompson, Miss K. Taylor, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. W. N. Robinson, Mrs. E. Thompson, Mrs. Alex. Thompson and Mrs. Judah.

Mrs. Bedford Phillips gave a very delightful tea on Wednesday for Miss Carol Brown, who is the guest of Mrs. Lucy Morrison. Mrs. Y. Miles presided at the tea table and those assisting initiated and sewed.

Mrs. George Hoyt has returned home to Rothesay after a delightful visit to Mrs. Emma Christie at Massacade.

At Camp Kennebecasis, Mr. George Matthews, William Tyril and Mr. George Finn of Brunswick, New York, are enjoying a holiday at Gondola Point.

Miss Marion Smith of St. John, is spending this week at Gondola Point with Miss Dorothy Nisbet.

Many friends here will welcome Mademoiselle La Cocc, who arrived on Wednesday to visit Miss Pither.

Miss Talley of Montreal, is guest of Miss Gaudet, this week.

At Rothesay Miss Agnes Watson of St. John, was guest of Miss Gladys Price over the week-end.

Mrs. Carleton Lee is occupying the Ryan cottage at Gondola Point this summer.

Also at Gondola Point, Mr. John Sinclair and family have taken one of the Smith cottages.

Mrs. L. V. Price of Rothesay, is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Hugh Nelson of St. John.

Mrs. Bromie of Toronto, is visiting Miss Jean Currie at Rothesay.

The many friends of Mrs. David Magee, Quispamsis, who recently fell from her horse and broke her leg, will be glad to hear she is somewhat improved, though still suffering pain.

On Tuesday Master Jack Thomson was able to come home from the St. John hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ritchie and little daughter, Miss Edith, moved from St. John to Riverside, to spend the rest of the summer.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. William Macdonald entertained a few friends at bridge at Government House. Miss Edith Barnes of St. John was guest of Miss Edith Barnes at Riverside.

Lieutenant-Colonel Perley and Mrs. Perley of St. John were weekend guests of Major and Mrs. J. S. Frost at their summer home, Fair Vale.

Miss Peard Watson, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hibbard on College Hill.

On Wednesday Mrs. Walter Johnson arrived from Montreal to visit at the home of her brother, Mr. John Belyea and family.