J. A. Sinclair, president of the New Brunswick branch of the Curling Association, to the Frederickton rink, of the double rink competition.

The cup was put up for amongst New Brunswick curlers. Andrew Blair, secretary of the Curling Club in the Canadian team made in 1912. So the beauty of the hand trophy may be obtained from that it was insured to the one hundred pounds when from Scotland to Canada.

The New Brunswick branch of the Curling Association began during the war, but was Wednesday night, all the members of the Royal Curling Club Association.

The Frederickton club, custodians of the cup, from 1921, and until the next year the trophy will again be in competition. The cup is a club that wins it three times.

The Thistle club have their credit, having won the trophy in the first year it was put up. Frederickton also has one win to its credit since this year's bonspiel.

There were no bonspiels during the war, so that this year's second year in which it has been placed in competition. The Thistle rink skip, Colm, the winners of the competition, were awarded the sterling silver "Collins" trophy.

The St. Andrew's rink, winners of the consolation, were awarded a silver "Collins" spoon.

F. W. Coombs, chairman of the Commercial Club A.A.A., presentation of the shield on the ice at the conclusion of the revel in New Brunswick.

The bonspiel just terminated the revel in New Brunswick. The grand old game which has remained during the war, in John under the auspices of the Commercial Club, it was a reunion of provincial curlers, weather favored the boys, concluded under the best circumstances. The visiting teams, the local clubs were all at the way things went with feelings of regret separated last evening. Days of splendid sport congeniality which he earlier may never attain prevailed.

The Commercial Club, clubs, and all others who in the grand success at bonspiel are to be heard, in particular P. L. the hard working secretary, to whom the smooth working of the schedule was largely due. The results of the evening's games were as follows:

AFTERNOON
Single Competition
Thistles
Malcolm, skip 15 WILSON

EVENING GAMES
Finals

Thistles
Malcolm, skip 15 L. A. Langstroth
