stroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those leleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted for a HAIR DRESSING nothing else can be found so desirable Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy ustre, and a grateful perfume. It was a dull and dismal afternoon.
The ice had melted in the Skating Rink,
And lovers sighed to walk beneath the moon,

The coffin maker hummed an air, then stood,
And drove a nail deep in the coffin-wood. CANTO III. Another spasm came, then down he fell, And sought the pitch pine floor, quite ill ease
And listened to the knell of deep-mouthed bell,
His gold hair fluttering madly in the breeze;
But Hism's Invigorator oured the pain,
And Ayer's Vigor brought in the hair again.
