Map of Canada. Mr. H. Matthews, the passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, has laid on our table a handsome map of Canada and part of the United States. It is printed from the stone prepared for Keith Johnston's map, which is considered one of the most correct maps of Canada ever prepared. A heavy red line, running from Detroit to Portland, on the Atlantic, and River du Loup, on the St. Lawrence, shows the Grand Trunk Railway and branches, the smallest stations being laid down.

Great Court. The case of the European and North American Railway vs. McLeod is now going on. McLeod took stock in the road but did not pay up. His stock was therefore sold at auction, and this suit is to recover from him the difference between what the stock sold for and the par value of the same. A. L. Palmer and C. N. Skinner, Esq., are for the plaintiffs, and S. Thomson and Chas. Duff, Esq., for the defence.

A Knitting Machine Company. Are those dear old ladies who sit in the corner and knit, to be dispensed with, or other work to be provided for them? James Donville, W. H. Thorne, W. H. Olive, Thomas B. Jones, Francis Collins, James Hunter, Henry Horton, M. Smith, Alex. McI. Sooty, John Melick, David H. Hall, Thomas B. Hanington, Thomas H. Hall, G. Fred Ring, George N. Robinson, C. E. Leonard Jarvis, H. A. Austen, and W. H. Hathaway, all of St. John, have filed in the Provincial Secretary's office a memorandum of Association for the incorporation of a Company to be styled "The Maritime Family Knitting Machine Company," for the purpose of manufacturing the "Improved American Family Knitting Machine, with such other things as are incident to the attainment of that object, with a capital of $50,000, to be divided into five hundred shares of $100 each, and stating that the office or principal place of business will be in this city. Are we never to have another item about the knitting feats of centenarian women?

Baptisms. Rev. G. W. Springer recently baptized two promising young men and an interesting female at Cumberland Bay, G. I. We trust that these are but the first fruits of a large ingathering of souls, and that soon the Lord of the harvest may provide the laborers of this region of a pastor who may sow the seed of truth skillfully and reap a plentiful harvest.

John B. Hopewell, clerk of the Olivet Baptist Church at Otonabee, informs us that Elder Haines baptized a young man upon the profession of his faith a week ago last Sunday, and the prospect before the new church is encouraging.

Health, the poor man's riches, the rich man's bliss, is found in AYR'S MEDICINE, after a fruitless search among other remedies. A word to the wise is sufficient.

City Police Court. The police reported that for twenty-four hours they had travelled over their beats and could find nothing to engage their attention in the shape of a drunken person. There were no harmless women's clothing protection; no unseemly rows or brawls in the streets. One policeman found a stray goat wandering round Pond street and reported it. Jeremiah Shay, the coal carrier, is the owner. Another guardian of the public peace stumbled over a pile of wood and rubbish in Duke street, and made a report, thus earning his $1.25.

There was one case of abuse only. Hamill C. Treeman, who was a few weeks ago sent to Goal for contempt of court, appeared and charged John Phillips with using insulting and abusive language. The abuse was proved and Phillips was fined $5.

The mate of the ship Annie Camp was in Court this morning to stand trial for shooting Wm. Joyce, one of the seamen. The charge was read by the Magistrate, the law explained, and he was offered the privilege of standing trial in the Police Court, or of going before a jury. He preferred being tried in the Police Court, and the examination was commenced.

Joyce was the first witness, and his testimony was about the same as has been already published. During the cross-examination it was proved that twenty days before arriving in St. John a part of the crew had refused to obey orders, except such as suited them. The evidence for the defence entirely changed his story. It was clearly proved that the mate acted entirely in self-defence. Four of the crew had with knives when he refused them not to go on board the boat and leave the ship. The Magistrate therefore dismissed the charge, telling the mate he was honorably acquitted. He would have been justified in shooting any of his assailants.

Perkins Police Court. Peter Walsh was the principal offender this morning. He was charged with being drunk in Simons street, and also with assaulting John H. Myles. Both the charges were proven and he was fined $5 for the drunkenness and $12 for the assault, or two months in the penitentiary.

James Leatham was charged with keeping two ferce unlicensed dogs. The charge was dismissed on his promising either to purchase muzzles or kill the dogs.
