

Hughes, William Morris, Prime Minister of Australia, 1915-23, honoured on Canadian visit, 115, 292n; Imperial War Cabinet meetings, 203; consultation of Dominions by UK on foreign policy and peace terms, 115, 220; attendance at Allied Economic Conference, 294-95, 298; channels of communication between Dominions and UK, 331, 344-48

Hunter, Chief Justice, B.C., 646

Hydrographic Service, Canadian, 280

I

Iliuliuk, 518

Illinois, naval militia, 819, 830; training of naval reserves, 837

immigration:

—Asian and Oriental, 324, 591-669; public opposition to, 598, 649; history of, 661-64, 667 (main entries below under Chinese; federal regulations; Indian; Japanese)

—various sources: British ex-service men, 141, 259-60, 317; uniform Dominions legislation on exclusion of aliens suggested, 259; Imperial preference in immigration, 317n; indentured labour, 596, 600, 603; miscellaneous, 611, 663; controlled by Canada whatever the source, 745-47

—Chinese, 591-663 passim:

(a) Mr. King's Peking talks, proposed restriction of Chinese emigration through limited issue of passports in return for abolition of Canadian head tax, 591-607; consultation of Chinese Minister in London, 594; dissatisfaction with existing arrangements, 598-99; terms of draft agreement, 602-4; exchange of views, 600-1, 604-7; Chinese delay decision, 601, 605, 607

(b) regulations governing admission, head tax, 592, 594, 598, 600, 602-3, 605, 611, 614-15, 652-53, 656, 661-62, 662n; indentured labour, 600, 603; position of students, 599, 603, 658; money qualification not required in addition to head tax, 610-11, 614-15; Chinese Immigration Act, 649, 649n, 663; proposed repeal, 652-53, 656; renewed proposals for modification of restrictions, 639-40, 642, 649, 651-53; Chinese offer of draft agreement, 656-58, 662n—see also Chinese in Canada

—federal regulations: "continuous journey" provision, 596, 609-11, 615, 621, 636, 640, 643, 662-65; money qualification for Asians, 596, 609; application to Indians but not to Chinese or Japanese 610-11, 614-15, 664; revised money qualification, 636-37, 640-41, 663-64; Minister of Interior authorized to permit entry of individuals, 617; artisans and unskilled labourers, prohibition of admission through B.C. ports of entry, 624, 626, 627-29; effect on Japanese immigration (see immigration, Japanese); extension of order, 626n, 643-44, 646, 646n, 647, 663, 668—see also Immigration Act

—Indian, 592n, 593-669 passim:

(a) Mr. King's talks, London and Calcutta, 592n, 595-97; limits of Indian Government's ability to co-operate with Canada's policy of virtual exclusion of Indians, 596-97 (see also under (d) below); Canadian act permits prohibition of Indian immigration, 608, 608n; protests of Indians in Canada and official reply, 609n, 609-11, 614-15, 664-65; "continuous journey" regulation and money qualification, 610-11 (see also federal regulations); possible establishment of direct steamship service, 621, 630, 641, 646; risk of influx avoided by prohibiting the admission of artisans and labourers at B.C. ports of entry, 624 (see also federal regulations); question of admission of wives and children of Indian immigrants, 353, 620, 623, 629-30, 641, 662, 665-68—see also Imperial relations, immigration.

(b) British Indians in US: discussion of discrimination in Canadian regulations on admission, 610-11, 613, 664; government of India asks for more flexible arrangements, 613-14; Canada to admit those who carry US re-entry permits, 617

(c) Komagata Maru incident: vessel with Indian passengers sails from Hong Kong, 643, 646, 646n; test of "continuous journey" regulation and order barring artisans and labourers, 643, 646, 646n, 647, 662; request for reconsideration of regulations, 646-47; charterer appeals for permission to land, 647; regulations upheld, 647-48, 654; British concern for condition of passengers and possibility of violence, 648; political and