CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

Branch No. 52 of the C. M. B. A. hold a regular meeting in Unity Hall this

Our Regina correspondence came to hand when our columns were full. It will have to be put off till next week.

The number of patients treated at the St. Boniface Hospital last week was 68 of whom 28 were males and 40 females.

Lieut.-Gov. Chapleau's speech at St. Boniface college, given in another column, is thoughtful, eloquent and thoroughly Catholic in tone.

It has been found necessary to carry out extensive work in the way of repairing St. Mary's church lately. The whole of the roof has had to be re-shingled and the window framing refitted, the work costing several hundreds of dollars.

Mr. Jas. Fitzsimmons, late deputy •warden at the New Westminster peni-tentiary, arrived from the west on Saturday morning, and left for Stony Mountain in the afternoon, to take the posi-tion there of deputy warden, lately made vacant by the transfer of Mr. Bourke.

On Wednesday last Mr. Henry O'Connor, C. P. Mr. C. Boes, a member of St. Mary's Branch No. 52 of the C. M. B. A., met with a very sad accident on Wednesday evening last, which will confine him to the louse and prevent him from following his occupation for at least a couple of months. He was riling on a load of hay which he had just purchased at the hay market, and was crossing the William street car track when the wagon was struck by an electric car. The force of the collision was so great that Mr. Boes was hurled to the ground with sufficient violence to sustain a double fracture of his right leg above the knee and dislocation of the hip joint. He was taken into a drug store and from thence, at his own request, conveyed to his residence on Selkirk street where he now lies. He is, we are informed, making Boire. satisfactory progress, but recovery from such severe injuries must necessarily be slow, and it cannot be said yet whether they will leave any permanent

Rev. Father Larue, S. J., of St. Boniface college, occupied the pulpit at the bouquet of flowers. Miss Chale deliver-church of the Immaculate Conception ed an address of welcome in French, on Sunday evening. He spoke on the while Miss Head followed with one in feast of the day, that of St. Michael the English. In both cases, the intenstion Archangel, and after giving the account of this great saint which is found in Holy Scripture and in the writings of the Fathers of the Church, spoke in most eloquent and powerful language of the fight between the forces for and those against God which is still being carried on. He earnestly begged his hearers to which was evidence to every one of the the cross, and to have constant recourse to the angels and the saints to assist which the simple, kindly words of greet-

CONFIRMATION AT SELKIRK.

An Address to the Archbishop After the Ceremony-A Reply.

Eleven candidates were presented to His Grace Archbishop Langevin at Selkirk last Sunkay, and he performed the sacrament of confirmation. Afterwards His Grace preached a sermon on St. Michael, the patron saint whose memory was being celebrated. When the sermon was over the Archbishop was met by the congregation and an address was read to him in English by Mr. J. McMahon and in French by Mr. J. E. Maillot.

In replying His Grace touched upon the school question and mentioned the resolutions passed at a conference of Anglican Bishops in Montreal recently, which tended to strengthen the cause which he and all his Catholic friends had been fighting for during the past five years. He also mentioned the letters of Principal Grant as voicing the Joseph Ryan, son of Judge Ryan of sentiment of the Presbyterian church.

The hall itself is a good one, and has a handsome panelled ceiling. Outside the Union Jack was flying on the flag staff and everything betokened a gala day. On the visitors taking their seats, the programme of the afternoon was proceeded with. The first item was a double quartette, entitled "La Chasse Aux Lions," which was played in magnificent style by the following young ladies: Mme. A. Doyle, B. Dubuc, Laure Boire, Eng. Chale, M. Lander, L. Daunais, E. Jolys, and E. Grasse. After this came a jubilant song of welcome by the whole school and accompanied on the piano by Miss A. Doyle and Miss L.

Every where poeans of thanksgiving are rising up to heaven for the splendid harvest, which has probably never been surpassed; but above all things, there has been just cause for gratifude for the spread of Christian education. Where, half a century ago, there was only a wilderness, the home of uncivilized men, and wild animals, there are now fine cities, with well equipped schools and public buildings rising every where. For this marvellous change, you, my children, have cause to thank God; but, you have also cause to thank the good sisters, whose noble, self-denying labors do so much, to make your lives happy, to develope intelligence within you, to inspire you with noble ideas, and to prepare you for the enjoyment of after life.

Education will never diminish so long as such devotion as theirs is to the fore. You, my children, will never see such bright sunny days as you have done here; but, if you take advantage of all your privileges here, the recollection of your school days will be a great blessing to you in after life.

You are too young, most of you, to understand all the aspects of the school question; but many of you can know what is meant when we Catholics ask for liberty of conscience. Your prayers can do a great deal for the good cause; they will undoubtedly help to bring about in Manitoba an extension of liberty of conscience. That is all we ask. Intelligence is a great gift, and it can be wonderfully developed by education; but, remember, there can be no perfect development unless it is illuminated by the light of Justice and Truth, which come from the blessed Saviour, the Light of the world. There are men who would like a school without God. Perhaps some of your parents have farms; if so, do they not sow the seed in the spring-time, if they want a harvest to be gathered in good time, before the frosts of winter On Friday afternoon a reception was have damaged it?
