

Select Committees. See Committees, Select.

SENATE :

Their amendments to Bills, where placed on the Orders, Rule 23—Private Bills from, to be considered by Committee on Standing Orders without special reference, 54—Their Amendments to Private Bills to be referred to same Committee as the Bill, 68.

Not to originate or amend Supply or Money Bills, Rule 89—Except in certain cases, 90—May search Journal of Commons, 92—Intercourse with, by Message, 95-98—Conferences with, 99.

Senators. Attending the Debates, Rule 100.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS :

To apprehend Strangers behaving improperly, Rule 5 To announce Messages from the Senate, 7—His responsibility and jurisdiction, 107—Entitled to a fee for custody of Strangers, 108.

Servants : See Officers and Servants.

Standing Orders. Pages 76-78.

SPEAKER :

His duties at the Meeting and Adjournment of the House, Rules 1-4—To direct Strangers to withdraw, when required, 6—To take the Chair and receive Black Rod, 7.

To preserve Order, and decide questions of Order, Rule 8—Not to debate, and only to give a Casting Vote, 9—To read Motions before debate thereon, 33—To apprise the House of Unparliamentary Motions, 37.

To appoint Chairman in Committees of the Whole House, Rule 75—To determine allowances to Witnesses, 81—Not to allow discussion on Presenting Petitions, 86—To name Members to carry Messages to Senate, 96.

To