A DIABOLICAL MURDER.

Three Girls in Jail at Lewistown Fa., for Killing a Man.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 10.—Three girls, more of whom is more than 20 years of aga, are in jail in Lewistown awaiting trial for one of the most diabolical murders that has ever been committed in this state. Their names are Della Corbett, Ella Kountzman and Jennie Quay. They attended the McAllisterville Soldiers' Orphan School. On Christmas John Ackley, a coal miner, while under the influence of liquor, took the three girls sleigh-riding. A supply of whisky was taken in the sleigh, of which Ackley and his companions partook freely. The party drove through town, and their conduct was shameful.

Finally Ackley became stupidly drunk, and the girls threw him from the sleigh, but not before they had inflicted injuries on his person that cannot be mentioned. A man mamed M. Austin carried Aokley into a house. The unfortunate fellow suffered the most excruelating pain. He lingered a day and then died, Ackley had his month's pay, and the girls are also accused of robbing him, as the money is missing. A coroner's jury returned a verdiet that Ackley met his death at the hands of the girls, who will be tried on Wednesday next. Ackley was a married man, but had been separated from his wife.

The proper channel for the escape from the system of impurities which would, if they remained, poison the blood, is through the bowels. When this outlet is obstructed it may be disencumbered with Northrop & Lyman's Vegatable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cupe, a remedy which regulates the system, invigorates digestion, and is pure and safe as well as effective. It cures all diseases arising from Impure Blood.
