

I am just in the receipt of your letter of the 12th, and am very happy to learn that the accident at the Sale is not like to produce any inconvenience.

I made search for the letter you mention at the Post Office, but there is no account of it - Mr Cockshott may have received it. I will make enquiry of him this evening.

As soon as it may be convenient for you I should be glad of your decision on Mr Cambys Claim for the deficiency of Camborough - and of your answer on the Dockstadu tract in Camborough.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient
Humble Servant
