Sir

I have the honor to inform you that the Superintendent General has been advised by the Solicitor of Indian Affairs that Timber and Indian Reserves may not legally be disposed of without the consent of the Board or on occupying such Reserve: - the same to be given in due form in writing, and that consequently you, as Departmental Agent for the district within which the Indian Bands under your supervision are located, must abstain from giving license or authorizing any Timber to be cut

Yours faithfully
J. P. Prager
