Ottawa, October 4, 1906.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 21st ult. in regard to Willie Day, I beg to say that the Principal of the Shingwauk Home, in a letter dated the 2nd inst., advised the Department that the boy would be sent to Walpole Island by the next boat.

Owing to the fact that the school holiday season is over, the Principal cannot see his way to comply with the request of the grandmother to have the other two children sent home at the same time as Willie for a holiday, as it would greatly interfere with their work. Willie is quite able to travel alone and there is no necessity for anyone's accompanying him.

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary.

J. B. McDougall, Esq.
