

Go to S. G. Read's No. 1 Bankrupt Store for Lustres.

The carriage factory of E. W. Burgess was established in 1844. It consists of two buildings, one brick, 36 x 24, the other wood, 24 x 24. Six hands are here employed in the manufacture of carriages, waggons, buggies, sleighs, cutters, &c.

BURGESS, E. W., blacksmith, J. P., and farmer.	Griswold, Harvey, carpenter.
Burgess, G. W., farmer.	Haines, Levi, farmer.
Burgess, S. S., farmer.	Langon, John, farmer.
Campbell, Peter, retired.	Nichols, Rev. Sylvanus, Christian.
Campfield, Mrs.	O'Neill, Edward, proprietor Franklin House.
Clark, Rev. Elijah, Baptist.	Pollard, Alfred, farmer.
Coultson, James, carpenter.	Pollard, Wallace, carpenter.
Dasin, Adam, shoemaker.	Shaw, A. F., gentleman.
Ferrington, James, teacher.	Smith, Wm., farmer.
Force, Francis, farmer.	Snyder, E. H., farmer.
FRALICK, G. S., woollen factory.	Spencer, Denis, carpenter.
Franklin House, Edward O'Neill proprietor.	Stanbury, Wm., postmaster and merchant.
Gagnier, Jerome, general blacksmith.	Sweezer, Mrs.
Garthwaite, Wm., waggon and carriage-maker.	Thompson, Joseph, tailor.
Griffin, Isaac, butcher.	THRALL, JOHN H., M.D., surgeon and physician.
	Watson, Isaac, pump-maker.

HOLBROOK,

A post office on the 21st Lot, 2nd Concession, Township of North Norwich, 9 miles from Woodstock on the line of the Woodstock and Norwich Gravel road. There is a presbyterian church a mile north of the P.O.—Rev. James Mullins, minister. It contains a general store, a hotel, blacksmith and waggon shop, shoe shop and a cheese factory. Mails daily. Population 100.

Costin, Wm., school teacher.	Sackrider, John, cheese manufacturer.
GAGNIER, JEROME, blacksmith.	SERVICE, LESTER, proprietor Holbrook Hotel.
HEATH, JAMES, waggonmaker.	Ward, Edward, shoemaker.
Heath, John, waggonmaker.	WHITFIELD, A. M., postmaster and manager of the co-operative store.
HOLBROOK HOTEL, L. Service prop.
NESBITT, J. W., J.P.

W. Watson always keeps on hand the celebrated Lyster Mills Cottons.