

NEW CANADIAN BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

RAINBOW VALLEY $1.60

By L. M. MONTGOMERY

Author of "Anne's House of Dreams,"
"Anne of Green Gables," etc.

The six children of Anne Blythe (of "Anne of Green Gables" fame) and their four young neighbors of the Manse are just the sort of lovable incorrigibles that keep the town aghast at their mischief, while it secretly gloats over their irresistibility. It is through them that two romances are brought to a happy outcome. Full of splendid wholesomeness, delectable humor and pure romance.

JOAN AT HALFWAY $1.50

By GRACE MCLEOD ROGERS

In "Joan at Halfway," by Grace McLeod Rogers, we have a charming romance of a sunshine girl—the creation of another Canadian heroine, who, we prophesy, will soon be beloved by the Canadian reading public. A human, real, charming story.

JANET OF KOOTENAY $1.50

By EVAH MCKOWAN

She was young, enthusiastic and adventurous, and she set up housekeeping all alone on eighty acres of wild land in the beautiful Kootenay Valley made famous by Ralph Connor's "Sky Pilot." One follows the breaking of the land into rich, black furrows, the gambols of ridiculous young colts and calves, and the inspiring beauty of this mountain country as it is revealed in this story, with conviction that here is a writer who has found the lost wonders of life.

THE SKY PILOT IN NO MAN'S LAND $1.50

By RALPH CONNOR

Author of "The Major," etc., etc.

The "Sky Pilot in No Man's Land" grips you with the conviction that the author has seen, felt and endured the experiences portrayed. In it Ralph Connor has produced one of the most vivid pictures of the life of the Canadian soldier in mobilization, on the ocean, in England, and on the fields of France; and he has shown the effective chaplain, a man among men—a man of understanding, sympathy and courage.

MIST OF MORNING $1.50

By ISABEL ECCLESTONE MACKAY

Author of "Up the Hill and Over."

A story that begins with youth in a small country village and broadens out to the struggles and ambitions of the great city, and still further into international intrigue and world-wide relations.

THE GIRL OF O.K. VALLEY

By ROBERT WATSON

Author of "My Brave and Gallant Gentleman"

$1.50

A romance of the Okanagan Valley. The nets of treachery and intrigue are flung over Kathie by her avaricious uncle and her jealous cousin, Lisbeth. A vigorous, wholesome story of adventure, love and mystery.

THE TOUCH OF ABNER $1.50

By H. A. CODY

Author of "The Frontiersman," "The Lone Patrol," "The Unknown Wrestler," etc.

From the dramatic moment when Abner subscribes $1,000 to the Orphanage Fund and explodes a financial bomb in the close-fisted meeting of the folks at Glucom, Mr. Cody unfolds a sprightly David Harum tale of much amusement.

GOLDEN DICKY $1.50

By MARSHALL SAUNDERS

Author of "Beautiful Joe," etc.

The story of a valiant little canary and his lively companions: Billy Sundae, the dog; Chummy, the Sparrow; Black Thomas, the cat; Mella, the monkey. A book for all animal lovers.

BULLDOG CARNEY $1.75

By W. A. FRASER

Author of "The Three Sapphires," "Mooswa and Others," "Thoroughbreds," etc.

For sheer adventure, with a frontier setting, one may turn to Mr. Fraser with the assurance of complete satisfaction. But "Bulldog Carney" is more than that. It is a picture of the border land, with its mounted police, its Indians, and its half-breeds by a man who lived there for years.
