To Lodge Secretaries.

DURING the past year the Order of the Sons of England has increased more rapidly than the most sanguine expectations of those interested in its welfare. Our Lodge Directory Columns has been used by members of the Order throughout the Provinces of Canada, and the ANGLO-SAXON has steadily grown in favor, with its increased circulation each month proves. Every year, travel is made more easy, and the Order of the Sons of England spreading throughout the Provinces, compels us to believe that our Lodge Directory results favorably to all concerned. Members can see at a glance what night a Lodge Meeting is held in the particular section which he may be visiting, when he can interchange fraternal greetings, etc. With this in view we hope that Lodges which have not their CARDS in the Directory will send it to us for our next issue. Only $1 per year. Address, ANGLO-SAXON, P. O. Box 296, Ottawa, Ont.

S. O. E. Notes.

TORONTO.

TORONTO'S CARNIVAL—ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED S.O.E. IN LINE.

We extract the following from the Toronto Mail's account of the Grand Procession in that city on Dominion Day. We are informed that in addition to the 1,500 brethren who marched as members of the S.O.E. Society, there were at least 800 more included in the military ranks.

"As the last of the followers of Bold Robin Hood swept by, the folds of a magnificent Union Jack fluttering in the breeze told of the approach of the members of the Sons of England Benevolent Society. The crowd gave a tremendous cheer, and Claxton's military band, led by Mr. Joseph Timson, struck up "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue." Behind the band was Grand Marshal E. B. Axworthy on horseback, followed by fully one hundred mounted men, every horse's head being decorated with red, white and blue rosettes. Next came the Grand Lodge officers, followed by the naval brigade, under High Admiral Tyler and Chief Commander Caddick. The men were much disappointed that their uniform was not ready, but they marched in splendid order. (Here followed 20 lodges, each with a marshal.)

NOTES.

A number of other lodges were represented by individual members, and altogether about 1,500 men of "Merrie England," representing 25 lodges, marched in the procession. They looked a solid manly lot. Each man wore the S.O.E. badge, and hundreds of them had red, white and blue rosettes on their breasts, and each lodge had its own banner, in addition to the Union Jack."

SHERBROOKE, QUE.

Bro. J. A. Edwards, of Montreal, District Deputy for the Province of Quebec, accompanied by Mr. Roberts, chaplain of Victoria Lodge, visited Sherbrooke and conferred the White Degree on 14 members of Gloucester Lodge, Sherbrooke, and 23 members of Albert Lodge of Capelton. The ceremony was very interesting, and was carried out in a most painstaking and impressive manner.

Lodge Gloucester, under Captain T. Rawson, has achieved great popularity and numbers 74 members, although only six months in existence.

Lodge Gloucester is making arrangements to hold a picnic at Garthby, on Wednesday, August 6th.

Bro. Edwin Avery has been appointed District Deputy for Lower Quebec, where there are a large number of Englishmen.

The brethren of Lodge Albert at Capelton have displayed an excellent social spirit in visiting their Sherbrooke brethren. As a means of bringing Englishmen together, making them acquainted with each other, maintaining a national spirit, preserving the traditions of the race and uniting in work and charity and good will, the Sons of England has claims upon every true Englishman.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Among the charter members of Rose of Columbia Lodge of New Westminster, B.C., is Mr. Gordon E. Corbould, M.P. When a new lodge at Victoria, B.C., was being organized last month, Lt.-Col. Prior, M.P., who is a Yorkshireman by birth, was about leaving for Montreal to assume command of the Wimbledon, or rather, the Bisley team. His last words, however, to his brother Englishmen of Victoria who were organizing the lodge, were, "Count me one of you," and Col. Prior will ride the goat on his return from the Old Land.

A QUERY.

Let those brethren in the West who consider that the S. O. E. should be solely a benefit society, ponder these things: What have these wealthy and prominent Englishmen in Canada to gain or desire from a purely benefit society?

TWO NEW LODGES.

There is good news from British Columbia this month, two strong lodges having just been started in the Pacific Province. On Wednesday, June 18th, Rose of Columbia Lodge was instituted at New Westminster, the installing officer being Rev. H. P. Hobson, of Vancouver, Deputy Grand President of the Society in British Columbia. A large number of Vancouverites went over, and among the newly initiated were Messrs. Corbould and Townsend, two of the candidates for the House of Commons. Those gentlemen were at the banquet which took place afterwards, and all who attended it state that they were right royally entertained.

On the evening of Thursday, June 19th, there was in inaugurated St. George's Hall, Victoria, B.C., Alexandria Lodge of the Sons of England. The proceedings were directed by Rt. Wor. and Rev. Bro. H. P. Hobson, of Vancouver, assisted by Bros. Welsh, Wood and Gilham, of Wilberforce Lodge in that city, and several Victoria residents previously connected with the order, among them Mr. J. D. Jones, who declined nomination to the first office. There was a large number of new members initiated, under the most favorable auspices. The officers elected and installed were as follows: President..... Bro. James Hillier. Past President, " S. A. Roberts. Vice do. " Thomas Robinson. Rec. Secretary.. " G. W. R. Lee. Fin. do. " J. Phillips. Treasurer..... " C. F. Beavan. Chaplain..... " Arthur Churton. Physician..... " M. S. Wade. Rev. Bro. Hobson, we extend our congratulations to you!

power engine and forty horse power boiler for use in the mills of James MacLaren & Co. The engine and boiler are models of their kind, splendidly finished even to the smallest detail. Mr. Low is about to construct a similar engine and boiler for the Bank street foundry. It is the seventeenth of its kind that he has built for Ottawa business men.

We extend our sympathy to Bro. R. J. Tanner and Mrs. Tanner over the loss of their son Hugh, who died at Belleville last week while attending College there. Bro. Tanner has the sympathy of the members of Bowood Lodge.

Bro. F. A. Jackson, the recently appointed secretary to the Central Canada Fair, has his hands full just now in connection with the coming event, which takes place in Ottawa between the 22nd and 27th September. Bro. Geo. Low, sr., has been appointed Superintendent of Machinery Department and Bro. C. C. Rogers will be Superintendent of the Bench Show.

Bro. Fred. J. Alexander, Vice-P. of Bowood, has been confined to the house with an abscess in the leg. His condition is, however, daily improving.

It has been decided by the S. O. E. lodges of Ottawa to hold their annual picnic on the civic holiday as usual.
