GOSSIP.

Colwill Bros., breeders of Shorthorn cattle and Tamworth hogs, Newcastle, Ont., in ordering a change of ad., write: "Having about completed the rounds of the fairs, we are now offering all our young show stock for sale at reasonable prices. We have been very successful wherever showing this season, having won 30 firsts and 24 seconds, besides silver medal, diploma, etc. The young boars we offer are good ones, and are doing well, and a number of the sows are well gone in pig, and should be good value to their future owners, being bred to the first-prize boar at Toronto in 1901.

The catalogue of Shorthorn cattle, Leicester sheep and Clydesdale horses, property of James Snell, Clinton, Ontario, is to hand, and shows that the stock to be sold at his dispersion sale, on Oct. 22nd, is richly bred, while the show record of the herd and flock indicates that individually the animals are of high-class character.
