An Act to amend the Act chapter seventeen of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, respecting the Royal Institution for the advancement of Learning.

[Assented to 5th May, 1863.]

WHEREAS the Royal Institution for the advancement of Learning, Governors of McGill College, by their petition, have in effect set forth, that for many years past the said Royal Institution for the advancement of learning, Governors of McGill College, have in fact had no functions to perform other than those incident to their capacity as such Governors, and no property or funds to administer, other than those appertaining to the said College and University, or to Departments or Institutions of Learning belonging or affiliated thereto;—that the endowments thereof are the result of private liberality, and that, for the further development of such liberality, and the advancement in other respects of the interests of the said University, it is desirable that the Provincial Statute constituting the said Royal Institution for the advancement of Learning should be amended as hereinafter is set forth; and whereas it is expedient to grant their prayer for such amendment thereof:

Preamble.
