A Mean Practice.

Some parties in or near this village are committing criminal acts by casting all sorts of refuse into the local mill ponds. Within the past two weeks, the bodies of three dogs have been taken from the Hamel mill pond, by the local sanitary inspector. Pollution of running streams is a very serious offence and if the guilty parties are found out, they will find themselves in a serious dilemma.

Pretty May Wedding.

The Sacred Heart Church, Mildmay, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding on Tuesday morning of this week, when Miss Isabelle, daughter of Mrs. Mary Dosman of Mildmay, became the wife of Mr. Philip J. Kroetsch of Carlsruhe. Rev. Father Montag conducted the ceremony. The bride was beautifully attired in orchid crepe, trimmed with crystal beads, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses and orchids. Miss Loretta Kroetsch, the bridesmaid, was dressed in sand crepe, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mr. Clarence Weiler acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the guests assembled at the home of the bride's mother. The balance of the day was fittingly celebrated. Mr. and Mrs. Kroetsch left on a motor trip on Wednesday to Kitchener, Elmira and other points, and upon their return will take up residence at Carlsruhe. The bride is one of Mildmay's most popular young ladies, and the best wishes of a host of warm friends here go with her and her husband to her new home at Carlsruhe. Among those from a distance were Rev. Father Hoffarth of Carlsruhe, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cleghorn of Elmira, Miss Helene Ahrens and Mr. Jos. Kroetsch of Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weber of Carlgill and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Weber of Neustadt.

A. this season and has a strong team. Don't miss seeing the Stars in action here on Monday evening. Admission 15 and 10 cents.

Aunt Susan's Visit.

One of the best amateur plays ever staged here was "Aunt Susan's Visit," presented in four acts in the town hall last Thursday evening by the young people of the Mildmay United Church. A crowded house rewarded the efforts of those taking part, and great credit is given to all the cast, each one taking their part in a finished manner. The story of the play is very interesting. Aunt Susan, old fashioned and full of quaint ideas, but whose heart is in the right place, comes to visit her nephew, John Thomas Tibbs, and his family. Mr. Tibbs' family are anything but pleased with their visitor, but Aunt Susan doesn't mind these slights, and finally wins out against the uncomfortable places. The difficult part of Aunt Susan was admirably taken by Miss Ruth Vollick. Mr. H. Ballagh as Mr. Tibbs, Miss Elsie Jasper as Mrs. Tibbs, Miss Laugretta Hamel as Rebecca Jane, Miss Margaret Stewart as Mary Alice, Alfred Filsinger as Senator Smith, Miss Hilda Pross as Mrs. Higginson, Miss Irene Harper as Mrs. Wiser, Miss Nellie Jasper as Mrs. Tugger, Harvey Vollick as Monsieur Guy Marchmont Cogges, and Miss Dorothy Vollick as the maid, all carried their parts in a remarkably able manner. Between the acts the Campbell orchestra of Walkerton furnished music, and they more than sustained the splendid reputation gained here on their former appearance. The total proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $148.50.

One Pair of Overalls Free

Save Six pockets cut from worn garments and receive one new pair ABSOLUTELY FREE

Men—here's a real proposition. Buy six pairs of Walker's Trainmen's Overalls—keep the pockets—and get an extra pair for nothing! Seven pairs for the price of six. In other words, every time you buy a pair of these good Overalls it is exactly as though you found Thirty-five cents in the pocket—because every printed pocket has a definite cash value equal to this amount.

When you buy Walker's Overalls you get strong, well made garments, that fit well, look well and wear well. The material is good. Every seam is well stitched. The pockets are big. The legs are roomy—easy to slip on and off. And they're reinforced to stand the strain where the most wear comes. You can depend upon Walker's Trainmen's Overalls for every job. They're made for honest work and lots of it.

BORN

RUMIG—In Carrick, on May 11th, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rumig, a son.

Cashed His Foot.

Thos. Herman had the misfortune to have his foot badly injured on Wednesday morning of this week. He was working on the 21st side-road with Overseer Polfus, and while chopping out a pine stump, the axe glanced off and cut a very bad gash in his foot. He will be off work for a time.

Football League Mooted.

There is a strong agitation for the formation of a local football league to include Otter Creek, F. Harper's school, Inglis' school and a team from Mildmay. It is a fine idea, and should be encouraged. A meeting of representatives from each team will be held at the Commercial Hotel, Mildmay, on Friday evening of this week at 8.30 o'clock, to see what can be done towards the formation of the league.

Hurt by Fall.

The little three-year-old son of Mr. John Becker, 12th con., Carrick, was badly hurt by a fall through the trap-door in the barn floor on Sunday last. The little fellow was watching his father throw down feed from the mow when he fell through headlong from the barn floor to the cement floor underneath. He sustained a bad cut on his forehead and his shoulder was skinned. He also suffered a concussion of the brain from which he was unconscious for several hours. He is now making a good recovery.
