THE S.S. NEWFOUNDLAND

Sails at Midnight TO-MORROW—Sunday.

LIVING IN 1870.

Some men are only a habit. New shoes hurt some minds as new shoes hurt some feet. Why suggest to these folk that modern methods would help them? The most conservative office man cannot fail to grasp the benefit of reforming a faulty filing outfit by such an economical and effective system as is afforded by the Globe-Wernicke Co. in the safeguard equipment, introduced by them to the trade. Mr. Percie Johnson has this method ready for demonstration in his office and will be glad to send you the catalogue "Filing and Finding" that will be sure to interest you.

THIS CASE WAS SHORT THIRTEEN SHIRTS

Water Street Firms Complain of Pilfering of Goods Between this Port and Points of Shipment.—No Trace of the Offenders.

The pilfering of goods either in foreign ports or on the steamships continues.

Thursday a Water Street firm on opening a case of ten dozen shirts, found that a dozen and one were missing. Such complaints are often made, but there seems to be no remedy.

The steamship companies say they are powerless to stop the robbery.

IMPORTANT POSITION FOR NEWFOUNDLANDER

Dr. Robert Frew Appointed Assistant to Celebrated London Physician.

Word was recently received from London that Dr. Robert Frew, son of William Frew, Esq., of this city, who is practicing in the great metropolis, has been appointed assistant to Dr. Still, the celebrated British authority on children's diseases and ailments.

Dr. Still's reputation is not only well known in London and the British Isles, but all over Europe, and also in Canada and the States.

His services have been sought by parents from all parts of the world. Nearly fifty young doctors applied for the post, and that Dr. Frew should be the lucky one, reflects very highly on him.

We congratulate him on the high honor he has received.

CASINO PRODUCES "THE STRENGTH OF MAN."

There was a large attendance at the Casino Theatre yesterday to see the pictures which were pronounced among the finest ever seen here.

The principal film was a two reel story entitled "The Strength of Man," and was viewed with the greatest interest by all. No one should miss seeing this attractive story to-day. "The Bear Hunt" also proved popular. There were three other reels, making the programme an exceptionally good one.

The programme will be repeated this evening.

Why pay $100.00 for gasoline when $20.00 will run a FRASER ENGINE the entire season and with better results than on gasoline.—Jan 24, 14

SEALERS' CONCERT WELL ATTENDED

Programme Arranged by Mr. Stan. Harvey Was an Attractive One and Much Appreciated—Moving Pictures Exhibited—Another Concert To-Night.

A splendid concert was given at the Seamen's Institute last night. It was arranged by Mr. Stan. Harvey, whom the thanks of all present are due.

The programme consisted of vocal solos by Misses Winter and Renie, Messrs. W. H. Jones and Green; a trombone selection by Miss Hanlin, a piano selection by Miss Windeler and a recitation by Mr. A. S. Harvey. Mr. A. Crocker presided at the piano.

The pictures also proved very interesting. At the close a vote of thanks, proposed by Mr. Jones, was tendered the performers.

To-night there will be a variety entertainment and moving pictures.

THE AVALONIAN

The Avalonian, which appears to-day, is especially bright and attractive. It is full of local and foreign stories and has a large number of illustrations.

The story of Rio de Janeiro, the world's most beautiful city, is well written and illustrated. Another interesting story is "Charming Women of the New World." "A Fatal Ad-journment" is a local story by Midas, the author of The Influence. Jay O'Lynn has another contribution entitled "A Permanent Situation." "Imperial Federation," by our young townsman, J. A. Barron, son of T. J. Barron, is a well written article, which all would do well to read.

Altogether this is a splendid number of the Avalonian, which will, no doubt, be much appreciated by the reading public.

The first will likely take place at the Casino Theatre, on the evening of the 15th, the programme to commence at 8.30. The other will take place before the end of the month.
