POSED AS A MAN TILL CALLED FOR WAR SERVICE.

The English woman carrying the bag is the wife of a deserter from the army, who posed as a man and worked in a factory until a call was made of all the men for war service, when her identity became known. She lived with her sister, also shown in the picture as her husband, her sister being a widow.

roops won back Dobric, ten miles from the Bulgarian border, and Do pasci. In the fierce battle that is still in progress they are fighting to clear Czar Ferdinand's troops from the holds they have won on the Rouman ian Black Sea coast. With the Danube line protected by the Russian thrust, the Rouman-ians have put new vigor into the campaign in Transylvania. Olah Top-litza, twenty-five miles inside the porder, and five other towns Transylvania were wrested from the Austrians. The territory lying between the Roumanian line and the mountains skirting the Hungarian border is being conquered rapidly.

Take Carpathian Heights The Russians are ready to join in this campaign. They have taken another series of Carpathian heights, vinning a hold on the ridges guarding the Rodna pass leading into Hungary proper. Berlin admits this retreat. This move aims to flank the second Austrian line behind the nountains on the Hungarian border. A furious battle is developing along the whole seventy mile front
