all the way up the street. The offiers all stated that his language was the worst they have ever heard on public street. This time he was soon put in the cells without any obstructions.

This mornig Roland appeared be ore His Worship and pleaded guilty. After hearing the evidence His Wor ship sentenced the prisoner to Six months in Central Prison.

Wilson appeared to answer three distinct charges, namely, disorderly conduct, using abusive language and resisting arrest. Wilson's case was all the more serious as he is now out on bail in conection with the last riot. When he was asked to plead he said he didn't remember anything of the occurrence, and hence was not in a position to say. His Worship put down a not guilty plea, but the evidence was all against him, and his record in connection with the last LLUSTRATED LECTURE by the riot was too strong. The police gave Rev. C. W. Whittaker on life their evidence, and Wilson said as he among the Eskimos, St. Jude's school room, Monday evening, Feb could not remember the happenings he could not answer any questions. His Worship decided he was one of a few rowdies who were causing Dr. Russell, Dentist -Houe Chamlot of trouble and must be dealt bers, 2011/2 Colborne St. (Opposite with severely. He received the same George St). Latest American sentence, as Roland-six months in ook the latter. A Minister on the Subject. Before beginning his sermon yeserday morning in Brant Avenue hurch, Rev. Alfred Lavell, gave a very direct deliverance on a live civic ssue. He said that in view of the re port of the chief of police as pub ished in Saturday's papers and o he meeting of the Police Board on Thursday next, he felt that he must speak his convictions. He did not speak merely as a citizen of Brantord, but as a Christian minister, and he therefore, spoke from the pulpit. Every citizen, he said, ought to do all he could to make his city the best city. He had shown last Sunday that law and its enforcement made better conditions than if these were lax. "The police of a modern city," said the minister, "are a strong force or good if they are the right sort and if there are enough of them Our police in Brantford are the equal
