THE PAINT

Has grown steadily in public favor, and is no place more popular than where it was first used. It is a sure and positive cure for leaks in a tin or iron roof, and as a preservative of wood it has no equal. Write for particulars and prices.

We have scores of testimonials as to its merits.

ROOFING

We do iron, cement, and gravel roofing and guarantee good work in every case.

We sell our paint by the gallon or barrel, or will contract to paint your roof or any woodwork liable to decay.

If you want a new roof or an old one repaired, let us hear from you.

THE ATHENS REPORTER

SINCE the first of January we have noted with satisfaction that the Reporter's list of subscribers, particularly in Athens and vicinity, has been steadily increasing. This is certainly encouraging to the publisher, and it should also be of particular interest to those wishing to purchase

ADVERTISING

The Reporter places your wants or business before a large number of the leading residents of this district, and an adv't therein should bring you business.

JOB PRINTING

We have always paid particular attention to our job printing department and have a large patronage in this line. We do a lot of pamphlet and commercial work, and our posters are found in all parts of the county. We print all kinds of posters and furnish entertainments with bills, tickets, programmes, etc. at very reasonable rates.

Orders for Cheese-factory blanks of all kinds promptly filled.

DAYTOWN

Mr. Sylvester Stevens has got his house on a good foundation, having moved it quite safely.

The people are nearly through spring's work, all but planting corn.

Mrs. J. Jones and sister were visiting at their father's, Eli Wood, last week, but have returned home to Frankville.

Mrs. George Huffman was on the sick list, but is better now.

Vet Stevens moved the barn he got from J. H. Wood this week.

GLEN BUELL

Quarterly service will be held here in the Methodist church next Sunday at 10.30.

All who attended the celebration at Brockville on the 25th report a most enjoyable time.

Miss Edith Moorehouse spent Sunday at Brockville.

Clinton Stewart, who spent the winter at Delta, has returned home.

James Clow, one of our popular residents, has moved to Brockville.

Nearly all the laundries about here have been closed, owing to the scarcity of soft water, save Wing Lee's which is still doing business.

FRANKVILLE

Ascension Day services were held in St. Thomas church on Thursday.

Miss Minnie Johnston, of Dublin, called on friends here last week.

Quite a number from here attended the ice-cream social at Toledo on Saturday. The evening being so cold was not as pleasant as it otherwise would have been.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McKewan, of Jasper, visited her sister, Mrs. S. Munroe, on Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Swain preached his farewell sermon on Sunday.

Victoria Day was spent very quietly here—nothing to mark the day except the floating of the many flags, which show we are a loyal people.

Mrs. R. Richards has returned home; her mother is somewhat better.

LANDSOWNE

The W.M.S. held a very successful social at the parlourage recently. A pleasant feature of the evening's entertainment was the making of Mrs. John Redmond a life member. All were beautifully supplied with refreshments.

Miss Robertson, of Almonte, is the guest of Mrs. H. C. Mulvaugh.

The pupils of Brice Head school held a picnic on Saturday afternoon in the Agricultural Hall. All acquitted themselves very creditably in the songs, drills, recitations, etc.

The school was closed on Thursday owing to the teachers attending the teachers' meeting at Gananoque.

A game of lacrosse was played between the married men and the young men of our village Saturday evening in the agricultural grounds.

Mrs. W. B. Foley was called to Junctown recently owing to the illness and death of her father, Mr. Ferguson.

E. E. Warren is improving his place by the addition of more barn room. F. Moore was last week building the wall for it.

The Misses Sheppard, of Mitchellville, were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Bigford, on Sunday.

CHANTRY

Tuesday, May 19.—At the home of Mr. John Chapman, Harlem, a costly casket encloses all that remains of a loving wife and mother. Mrs. Chapman, whose maiden name was Matilda Abbott, passed away about 4 a.m. yesterday, after a long illness from heart trouble. She leaves a husband, one son and three daughters to mourn the loss of one of the best of wives and mothers. The children are Mrs. W. Buchanan, of Brockville; Mrs. Russell Rose, of Portland; Miss Maude and Louis at home. Two sisters also survive, Miss A. J. Abbott and Mrs. W. Morrison, both of Brockville.

The funeral service will be held at home at 2 p.m., thence to Harlem cemetery to rest beside the loved ones gone before. The bereaved ones have the deepest sympathy of their many friends in their hour of sorrow.

Death also visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Nichols, of Harlem, yesterday, taking away the youngest child, a baby some two months old. The funeral service was held in the Chantry church this afternoon, the Rev. James Dunham officiating in the absence of the pastor, who had been called to attend a funeral elsewhere. The friends have the sympathy of all in their loss. The body was taken to Toledo for burial.

Newsy Budgets by the Reporter's able staff of Correspondents

Mr. G. J. Alford and family expect to leave for London, Ont., in a few days, where he expects to work in a carriage factory.

Miss B. Alford, of Athens, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Minnie, at Chantry.

GREENBUSH

May 25.—Mr. Edgeley's arm that was cut with a circular saw is improving.

The growing crops are needing rain badly.

Mr. J. W. Hannah has erected an addition to his store, which adds much to the appearance and convenience of the premises. Mr. James Hewitt has also built a veranda to his house.

Mr. Henry Davis had a narrow escape from being killed to-day. While assisting Lewis E. Blanchard to load a wagon, the horses took fright, ran away, and threw Henry out of the wagon against a log, badly shaking him up, but we trust he will soon be better.

We are pleased to note that Miss Ella Kerr, having passed her three other examinations, passed her associate examination with honors at the recent examination held in Brockville in connection with the Dominion College of Music, Montreal. She is a pupil of Miss Margaret Jamieson.

Mrs. James Justus, who has been in failing health, passed away yesterday morning. Her funeral will take place at Greenbush to-day.

From Another Correspondent

Everyone busy. Very dry weather. The frost Sunday night did considerable damage to gardens—potatoes, beans and tomatoes all out down.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Justus was large on Monday at the Methodist church here.

E. Willie went to Brockville to spend the 24th and has not yet returned.

Mr. A. Root purchased a new horse to replace the one that died. It is a beauty and the price paid—well, it is above telling.

Mac McCready has taken a position in Mr. Root's mill.

Our blacksmiths are having their ability tried in setting tires.

L. B. Kerr and Joseph Johnston have the contract for Gilbert Olds' new building, also several repair jobs.

Considerable quantities of logs are being drawn to Root's mill by Henry Davis.

Mr. Bert Olds, of Smith's Falls, spent Sunday with his father here and returned Tuesday.

Mr. R. Rickett has improved his lot with several shade trees.

A. Root is preparing to build a house for some of his men, as several houses could be rented if they were to be had.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. B. Burbage, a student at law in Greenville, S.C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the officers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday-school was held on Wednesday evening last. Reports were presented making the following very satisfactory showing:—

The aggregate attendance during the year was 7,040; average, 141. Number of teachers, 19; average attendance, 16.

Collections for year, $46. For about the thirtieth time, Mr. D. Fisher was re-elected superintendent and all the officers and teachers were re-appointed. Interest in the various classes was well sustained, and the outlook for the future of the school was never brighter.

Just What You Need

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are just what you need when constipated; when you have no appetite, fell dull after eating and wake up with a bad taste in your mouth. They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and give you a relish for your food. For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

Jim Dumps had scarcely slept a wink. All night he'd toss about and think. But that's all past—he's now secure. Insomnia. He's found a cure! It's "Force." At night, when lights are dim, it soothes the nerves of "Sunny Jim."

"Force"
The Ready-to-Serve Cereal makes one chummy with good sleep.

"I wouldn't believe it till I tried it, but 'Force' is a cure for insomnia. I used to stay awake all night. Now I eat a big bowl of 'Force' just before going to bed and sleep like a baby."
