The Junior Institute held its meeting on July 5 at the home of Miss Marguerite Morris, with an attendance of six. The minutes of the June meeting were read and approved, followed by the roll call. A letter was read from the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in answer to one written asking about their prices, etc., and it was decided that a sale of their goods be held. Twenty-five dollars was voted and an order for that amount was made out and sent.

An offer was made by O. Gardiner to join with him and give a special motion picture concert, and it was left with one of the members to arrange for a night in August or whenever it could be given.

Miss Nettie Slack was appointed to get flowers for Mrs. Snider while in the hospital.

Letters were read from the News Bulletin and an invitation to attend a basket picnic on Mrs. George Morris' lawn, with the senior Institute on July 12, was extended by Mrs. W. Morris, which was accepted.

The roll call at the next meeting, which is to be held at Miss Laura Howard's, is to be answered with a favorite recipe for a salad. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

Very Successful Financial Year
For The Women's Institute Of The Brockville District

The first annual meeting of the Brockville district of the Women's Institute was held June 20th, at Mallorytown, with the president, Mrs.
Charles Yates, presiding, a good representation of Athens and Rockport Institutes being present.

The meeting was opened at 2:30 p.m. by the singing of the Institute ode, Mrs. Judson at the piano.

A very cordial welcome was given all by Mrs. Root, president of the Mallorytown branch, which was replied to by Mrs. Slate, president of the Rockport branch.

The president gave a short address in which she set forth the pleasure and profit of co-operation in Institute activity.

The secretary-treasurer's report showed a total membership of 151 members; that 38 meetings were held during the year with an aggregate attendance of 943, and that 22 addresses were given during the year. Total cash receipts, $2,202.36; total expenditure $1,828.83; cash balance, $373.53.

The branch secretaries in their reports of work done showed excellent work being carried on by all branches.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:
President—Mrs. C. F. Yates, Athens.

1st Vice-president—Mrs. W. I. Mallory, Mallorytown.

2nd Vice-president, Mrs. William Slate, Rockport.

Sec.-Treas.—Mrs. E. Eaton, Athens.

Athens; Mrs. Henry McDonald, Mallorytown; Mrs. Fred Hutt, Rockport.

HIGH SCHOOL ENTRANCE
RESULTS.

The following candidates were successful at the High School entrance examinations held at Athens and Jasper centres. Marks required for pass were 450 and for honors 503. Certificates of successful candidates will be sent in the course of a couple of weeks, while the marks of unsuccessful candidates will be sent immediately. Any appeals by rejected candidates must be made to the School Inspector at least two weeks before the re-opening of the schools in September, and must be accompanied by a fee of two dollars, which will be returned if the appeal is sustained. Do not send appeals to the Department of Education. The Entrance Board has carefully re-read the papers of all candidates who were near the pass mark and appeals should not be sent except after consultation with the teachers.

AT THE SIGN OF CUPID

Feenlong—Morrow.
On Wednesday evening, June 28th, a quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in Christ Church, Athens, when Ada, the daughter of Dorman DeWolfe
