LOCAL MATTERS.

Circuit Court meets at Dorchester next Tuesday. Allen, C. J. will preside.

CATTLE SHIPMENT.—Mr. W. F. George, Upport Sackville, and Mr. Edward Smith, Amherst Harbour, will ship a consignment of cattle for Glasgow next Saturday per steamer "India" for Halifax.

THE SHIPMENTS of deals the past week were: 475 M per barque "Atlantic" for Bristol by J. L. Black. The same party cleared 180 standard on 10th per "Helvetia" from Shediac. It is now loading barque "Cato" here, and has chartered "Helvetia" to load here.

GOING TO THE EXHIBITION.—Mrs. Mariner Wood, Miss Amelia Treuman and Miss Annie Ogden, of Sackville, and Dr. James Treuman and Mr. R. D. Roach, of Macaan, will sail for London on the Furness Line steamer "Demara", which is expected to sail from Halifax about the 20th inst.

FIRE AT WESTCOCK.—The house and barn of Mr. Joseph Cook, Westcock, were destroyed by fire last Friday morning. The fire originated in the barn, which was consumed with all its contents, and extended to the house, from which the neighbors managed to remove the greater part of the furniture. Mr. Cook and his family were from home at the time. The property was insured for a small amount. The cause of the fire is a mystery.

CARRIAGE ACCIDENTS.—As Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson, of Cole's Island were driving along Bridge St. Friday afternoon, a calf that was lying in the road suddenly sprang up and frightened their horse so badly that it jumped over the fence and ran into a ditch, demolishing, and two bottles of cream intended for the strawberry festival in Chignecto Hall were broken, but the occupants of the carriage escaped without serious injury. On the same day Mr. Ainsley Todd left his horse and wagon standing in the street at Westcock, and the animal ran away and smashed the carriage.—On Saturday as Mr. H. R. Fawcett was driving on Bridge St. one of the axles of his carriage broke and he was thrown out, but fortunately escaped without injury.

Point de Bute.

—Among the many visitors here at present may be mentioned Miss Eunice McLeod, of Newark, N. J., sister of Mr. R. T. McLeod, Mrs. Fred. Bent and daughter, of Cincinnati, Miss Daisy McLeod, of Baltimore, Mrs. Dr. Gray and two children, of St. John, Mrs. Capt. Cutten and Miss Marian Cutten of Boston. Mr. Wells, editor of the Harvey Observer, with his wife and son, is also making a brief visit to his friends.

—An excursion from Memramouc and other points along the line to Halifax will take place on Tuesday, 27th inst. This will afford an excellent opportunity of visiting the capital of Nova Scotia at a remarkably low price, while at the same time contributing to a worthy object. Special trains on the N. E. &amp; P. E. Railway will enable persons along the route to join the excursion at a very slight additional cost.

—The Monitor Accident has started afresh after a suspension of two or three months. It makes a very attractive appearance in its new dress, and has changed from a weekly to a semi-weekly issue. We wish it every success.

—Burnham &amp; Morrill's lobster factory at Charles Cove, Port Bay, N. S., was closed last Friday. About 3000 lbs. of lobsters were burned. Loss $15,000.

—Barque "Onaway," Purdy, arrived at Queenstown Tuesday.

ROUND TOWN.

—Strawberry festival at Bayside, Botsford this afternoon. Don't miss it.

—The volunteers returned on Saturday afternoon train, looking quite like veterans.

—Mr. J. T. Tingley lost a valuable horse last Monday. Cause of death unknown.

—A live trout is the latest attraction in Mr. Knight's tennorial establishment.

—Shad fishing in the Minas Basin is very poor this season. The largest haul yet reported is 250.

—Parties wishing agricultural implements of any kind will do well to apply to Arthur W. Dixon, Sackville.

—Mr. Isaac Winchester, of Boston, a former resident of Sackville, is visiting friends in this part of the country.

—Receipts at the Tea Meeting and Strawberry Festival at Fairview last Saturday amounted to something over $50.

—The Strawberry Festival in Chignecto Hall last Friday evening was well patronized. The receipts amounted to $69.

—Mr. Charles Fawcett has sold fifty head of fat cattle to Fader Bros., of Halifax. They are a very superior lot.

—Wesley Lund, son of Mr. Daniel Lund, and Lockwood Weldon, son of Ovid Weldon, left for Manitoba Monday night.

—The Norwegian barque "Atlantic," 494 tons, cleared from this port on Monday. She was built thirty years ago in Yarmouth, N. S.

—A valuable two-year-old colt belonging to George Bisset, Botsford, was killed by train on the I. C. R. last Thursday.

—Mr. A. W. Dixon has for sale a fine line of road carriages and phaetons, manufactured by the Ganougue Carriage Co., of Ontario.

—Remember that the ladies of the Thru and Long distance, hold their annual sale this afternoon and evening. It will be worth attending.

—Mrs. J. R. Richardson, while putting up some blinds last Tuesday, fell and sprained one of the cords of her leg so badly that she will probably be lame for life.

—Dr. I. W. Knapp of this place, who has been successfully practicing dentistry at Summerside, arrived here a few days ago very seriously ill, but is now recovering.

—Among the three or four distinguished visitors mentioned by the Harvey Observer, is a gentleman mentioned by the militia officers at Sussex was our fellow townsman, W. B. Dixon, Esq.

—Mr. Gilbert Blenkhorn, of Macaan, had his left hand shattered on Tuesday by the bursting of a gun which he was discharging. He was forced to leave his hand amputated at the wrist, but is now doing well.

—The deposits in the Dorchester branch of the Government Savings Bank during the year ending June 30th 1886 amounted to $38,414. The withdrawals during the same period reached a total of $10,205.39.

—Westmorland Division No. 50 paid a fraternal visit to Sackville Division No. 40 on Tuesday evening. A well selected literary programme was successfully rendered, after which strawberries, cake and coffee were served.

—The Amherst Baptist Sunday-school had an excursion to Port Elgin last week. The excursion was accompanied by the Amherst Cornet Band and occupied eight cars. Excursions on the N. E. &amp; P. E. Railway appear to be popular.

—Mrs. Senator Botsford arrived home from Richmond, Va., where she has been spending the winter. She is suffering from an attack of malarial fever, will, it is expected, be able to start homeward in a few days.

—Last Friday, while Mr. Colpitts Fillmore, of Westmorland, was in the act of conveying some cattle in his pasturing across the railway track to water, a pair of yearlings belonging to Mr. F. A. Dixon were struck by a special train and killed.

—Rev. Mr. Weddall left this morning to enjoy a short vacation. He is in the pasturing across the railway track to water, a pair of yearlings belonging to Mr. F. A. Dixon were struck by a special train and killed.
