

Don't Bother with "Special Pastry Flour"

You can get the same flaky lightness in your Pie Crusts, Tarts and Cookies, with

BEAVER FLOUR

as you can with any pastry flour.

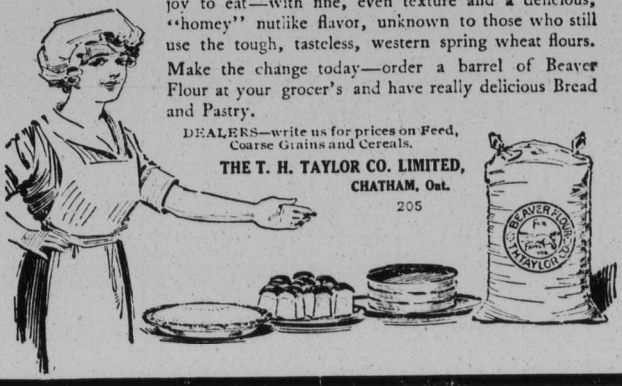

Beaver Flour is milled of the famous Ontario fall wheat, strengthened with western spring wheat.

And more than that—Beaver Flour makes a loaf of bread that is a joy to eat—with fine, even texture and a delicious, "homey" nutlike flavor, unknown to those who still use the tough, tasteless, western spring wheat flours. Make the change today—order a barrel of Beaver Flour at your grocer's and have really delicious Bread and Pastry.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Baby's Own Tablets Used Ten Years

Mrs. C. E. Stillwell, Winthrop, Sask., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past ten years and have found them so good for my little ones that I always keep a box in the house." Mrs. Stillwell is one of the thousands of mothers who always keep the Tablets on hand. Once a mother has used them for her little ones she would use nothing else. They are absolutely free from opiates and injurious drugs and cannot possibly do harm to the youngest child. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE SUPREME SACRIFICE

(The "Observer," London)
The spirit which moved this young hero, (Lieut. Harry Butters, of California, aged 21), to take up the sword for England and for Freedom, was enshrined for ever by himself in a letter which is one of the finest statements of the Allies' case yet penned. It was written last January, and has an added light now that its writer has laid down his life, as he was willing to do, to help the world's work.

Here is the letter, which says all there is to say of it. It was written to "my dearest folks."

"I am now no longer untried. Two weeks' action in a great battle is to my credit, and if my faith in the wisdom of my course or my enthusiasm for the cause had been due to fail it would have done so during that time. But it has only become stronger; I find myself a soldier among millions of others in the great Allied armies, fighting for all I believe right and civilized and humane against a power which is evil and which threatens the existence of all the right we prize and the freedom we enjoy."

"It may seem to you that for me this is all quite uncalculated, for that I can only mean either the supreme sacrifice for nothing, or at best some few weeks, but of course it doesn't do to have this sort of quiet or we would not make much progress."

"I suppose you set all the accounts in the papers of the good work the Allies are doing now, and it certainly is good news to us, seeing that it does so much to help shorten the war. Of course we are all certain of victory, but when it will come is hard to say. Canada has certainly done her share in the war, and her men are of the best. You would be surprised to see how they work and how cheerful they are at a time like this."

"I guess you know George Todd who was killed the night I got hurt. He was certainly a fine fellow. I might say one of the best I've met since I left home, and I felt very sorry for his death. I also felt very sorry for his mother for she thought an awful lot of her and I know she did of him. It certainly makes an awful difference when a fellow has no mother, for she is always the best friend a person can have. Our home has changed awfully since I left. I know I can't think of it as the same home at all, now since poor mamma has gone."

"Well I have not much to write about so will have to close. With lots of love to Aunt Annie, the children and yourself, I remain,
Your loving new-hew,
ALEX."

FOR HEADACHES, BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION

Nearly all our minor ailments, and many of the serious ones, too, are traceable to some disorder of the stomach, liver, and bowels. If you wish to avoid the miseries of indigestion, acidity, heartburn, flatulence, headaches, constipation, and a host of other distressing ailments, you must see to it that your stomach, liver and bowels are equal to the work they have to do. It is a simple matter to take 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup daily, after meals, yet thousands of former sufferers have busied themselves with all sorts of remedies, and all their distressing consequences in just this simple way. Profit by their experience. As a digestive tonic and stomachic remedy, Mother Seigel's Syrup is unsurpassed.
