Customs Officer Praises Tanlac

Says Wife and Mother-in-Law Were Both Wonderfully Benefited

G. W. McKay, a Customs Officer at Beaver Harbor, Charlotte county, N. B., called at the Ross Drug Store in St. John the other day for a bottle of Tanlac, and on being asked if he could recommend the medicine said:

"Yes indeed, it's a pleasure for me to endorse Tanlac, for both my mother-in-law and my wife have taken it and after seeing it used with such splendid results in my own family I could not do otherwise than recommend it."

"My mother-in-law was about as badly run-down as people get to be. She had no appetite at all and she could not eat anything but what disagreed with her and causing her great distress. She had become very nervous and restless, couldn't sleep at all well and had lost strength to get around."

"We were so impressed with what others said about Tanlac that my mother-in-law wanted to try it, and it couldn't have done her more good if it had been made especially for her case. It soon corrected her stomach trouble and she can eat hearty and digest her food without distress or pain. Now her appetite is just splendid and she is eating just anything she wants, and, judging from the way she looks, her weight has increased at least ten pounds. She can now sleep well, looks many years younger and is always praising Tanlac. My wife took it, after being poorly for sometime, and it has also done her a world of good, so I am glad to recommend Tanlac as an extra fine medicine and one that I think should be in every home."

Tanlac is sold in Newcastle by E. J. Morris, in Redbank by Wm. M. Sullivan and in Dartmouth by O. Hildebrand.

BABIES AND MUSIC

At birth there is no sense of melody, no apparent consciousness of rhythm. The infant will, however, jump nervously and sometimes cry at loud or sudden noises and will soon begin to smile or coo at soft, sweet sounds. It is very important, therefore, to shield babies from loud sudden discordant noises, and to surround them with melodious sounds that naturally please them. Indeed, a nervous, fretful baby can often be soothed by soft music.

Music, is as natural to the human being as speech. Do not let your child's musical instinct starve in his infancy. Root his babyhood in music, that his manhood may enjoy to the utmost this God-given heritage.

EDITORS MAIL

We are not responsible for opinions expressed by writers under this heading. Correspondents would oblige by writing legibly, and on one side of the paper only, name and address (not necessarily for publication,) must always be sent. Correspondence should be as concise as possible.

To the Editor of The Union Advocate Sir:—

Be good enough to permit a few observations and quotations.—Thank you.

If Prohibition should be defeated in the vote of July 10th, proximo, I would agree with Premier Foster and have government agencies for the sale of booze rather than the old-fashioned licensed bar. The money then derived from the sale would belong to the Province, Blood money though it would be. The voters who are lukewarm and stay-that way till election day is a thing of the past and they will regret it for the balance of their days.

The anti-prohibitionists are using some advertising, I want to investigate. We will look at one entitled a Matter of Regulations. They claim there is no Moral Issue at stake in the coming referendum. I think there is, but if not there are many Immoral Issues. The next sentence or division misquotes and misapplies a portion of a scriptural text. Turn up the last few verses of I Cor. 9th Chapter to get the correct bearing. The next point they try to make is to bring discredit upon the Prohibition Act, by saying that is "an old crime rather than suppressed it, created Lawlessness and brought misery and poverty to many homes."

We have had crimes in spite of the Law, because doctors, vendors, inspectors and others have not done their full duty, but less in number and seriousness. Because people have broken the law misery and poverty, as with other laws, have followed. The statement is a mere bluff. Here it is Private liquors interests are not interested in the present campaign they have no come-back whatever happens." They know if Prohibition is carried by a big majority the Dominion Government will soon stop the inter provincial traffic. The next and last point under government control which is the second question on the Ballot. The wine, beer, cider, ale and other fermented liquors touch the most vital part and are known as the "devil's" kindling wood," and the Irishman's advice should be heeded by all our young people—"leave off before you begin." They wind up their advertisement with "Let us have a change in the system." They will vote against the first question and for the last. Will you go and do likewise or the opposite?

Permit now a lengthy quotation from an address of the late John B. Finch delivered at Moore's Opera House, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. April 23, 1882: "Just as we'll build up a man by putting lice on his head as to hope to build up the material interests of a city by opening dram-shops in every business relation the liquor traffic of the country is an institution which receives value without returning it. It lives on society as parasites live on bodies. A saloon bears the same relation to legitimate business that a bed-bug does to a man who sleeps in the bed where the bed-bug lives. You would admire a louse as much as you do a honey bee if it lived in the same way. Some of the parasites are among the most beautiful of insects. It is the way they live-by sucking their life out of other life—that raises the feeling of disgust and leads to their destruction. It is not a liquor-seller's clothes or looks which causes society to detest him and his trade; it is the way he lives in society—a mere parasite on his business life. As the shingles go on his customers, they fall off the house of his customers; as he and his family live easily in idleness, his customer's and his customer's family suffer in rags. For this crime of parasitism he is on trial."

"I do not like to drag anything into a position where it ought not to be, and I feel at this point like apologizing to the bed-bug. You ask what I mean? I will tell you, I never knew one bed-bug mean enough to eat another bed-bug, or one louse mean enough to eat another louse. It remains for the last and highest order which God Created in His Own image, to develop the type which will live on their own kind and of their own species; also will fasten its fangs of parasitic avarice—in the pulsating flesh of their own kin, their own blood, their own sex and their own race; and grow rich, not by the destruction of individuals who feel the same, who enjoy the same as they do. It is unfair to a parasite, that lives on other forms of life, to compare it with a class low enough, vile enough, to live on its own kind without a feeling of sympathy, without a pulsation of regret."

How does our citizenship treat the wheat midge, the spruce bud worm, the codling moth, the brown-tail moth, the potato beetle, the sheep tick, the sting or gad fly, the mites and slugs infesting the hen roosts and yards, the bed-bug, lice infesting our domestic animals, rats, mice, etc.

Yours truly,

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

But remember that Paint Quality varies

You cannot save the surface with a poor paint—unless you re-paint frequently. That is extravagant—so you naturally seek the paint of utmost durability. Your search for such a paint will lead you ultimately to the pure and permanent

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT

70% Pure White Lead (Brandram's Genuine B. B.)
 30% Pure White Zinc
 100% Pure Paint

Its outstanding merit is primarily due to its white base: zinc white and Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead, which for two centuries has been the standard white lead of the world. The purest linseed oil (from our own mills) with best turpentine, aids in giving a tough air-tight coat. You cannot prove these high claims until you've used the paint—but you can meanwhile accept as your guide the experience of your neighbors. Ask any man who ever used B-H if it is not true that it goes farthest—and lasts longest. You will find unvarying conviction among experienced paint-users that the quality and durability of this brand are such as to make it the supreme surface-saver. You will probably find in your neighborhood houses painted with B-H long ago that look as if they were painted but recently.
