At Peake's Station, on January, 30th, John F. McDonald, son of Dougald and Mary Isabella McDonald, departed this life in the twenty fifth year of his age. The deceased was truly an ambiti young man of exemplary character. He was known in different parts of this province as a painstaking and successfuteacher, He was also known as a cleve debator and a close reader of good literature. In a word his talents pointed ou for him a brilliant future. But although for him a brilliant future. But although by death all his earthly hopes were blasted, still having lived well and died a happy and peaceful death he enjoyed man's greatest blessing on earth. His funeral to St. Teresa's was largely attended. After a High Mass of Requiem and the usual funeral service his remains were interred in the adjoining cemetery.

A SAD accident occurred at New Glas gow Road on Saturday the 17th inst., which resulted in the death of Mr. John McLeod. Mr. McLeod had gone to a back field to get a load of grain, and while turning his horse the bits of the bridle broke and the horse started to run. In some way Mr. McLeod's feet got entangled in the reins, with the result that he was dragged over the frozen ground for a distance of eight or ten chains. When picked up he was unconscious and remained so until his death nearly thirty hours afterwards. Mr. McLeod was forty-sev years of age and unmarried.

On Friday last, the sad intelligence was received in this city that Dr. Joseph Creamer had died in Brooklyn, N. Y. after a brief illness of pneumonia. Dr Creamer, who was a son of the late Dr. Creamer who for some time practiced his profession in this Province, was about 47 years of age at the time of his death. He was educated at St. Dunstan's College and for some years practiced his profession in this city. He married the eldest daughter of the late Judge Reddin. Some years subsequently he removed to Brooklyn, where he had since resided and where he had been most successful. He leaves to mourn a widow and three children, one of whom, Joseph is also a medical doctor, Mrs. Reddin, his mother in law and her son D. O. M. Reddin, left for Brooklyn on Friday night. The family and friends of the deceased have our sympathy in thair sore bereavement.

A MAN giving his name as Willian J. Barnes called at Dodd & Rogers hardware store a few days ago, and selected a quantity of nails and other goods to the value of $28 and tendered in payment a cheque for $42. He received the difference in cash. The cheque was drawn on a firm named A. R. McDonald & Co. of Pictou. It was found out later from the Pictou Bank that there was no money with which to cash it. A warrant has been issued for his arrest. He is thought to be the same person who was arrested in Summerside on Friday afternoon for the same trick, having tried to pass a cheque at Holman's store, and succeeding at D. Rogers & Sons, where he purchased goods to the amount of $17 and in payment presented a cheque for $43 with the name of A. Duchemir & Co., of Charlottetown on it, and payable to Isaac Sanderson, who he claimed to be He gave orders to leave the goods at the Cerrace House where he was residing. Or quiry it was afterwards found that he gave his name there as Perkins. This led to suspicion, and a warrant was issued for his arrest, which subsequently followed.
