Messages of Sympathy

NEWFOUNDLANDERS IN NEW YORK.

New York, April 10.
To J. S. Munn, Esq.,
President Board of Trade:

At a meeting of Newfoundlanders held here to-night at the Hotel Belmont, on short notice, under the chairmanship of Hon. W. J. Ellis, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS—Our native country has just met with the greatest marine disaster in its history, whereby two hundred and fifty of our fellow-countrymen have lost their lives, and some forty others were permanently disabled, leaving many hundreds dependent upon them for subsistence;

AND WHEREAS—The Relief Committee organized at St. John's, realizing its inability to provide sufficient financial help from local sources, has appealed to Newfoundlanders abroad, and to those with local affiliations, for aid.

RESOLVED—That we, the Newfoundlanders residing in New York and its environs, tender to our fellow-countrymen through the Hon. William J. Ellis, Mayor of St. John's, our heartfelt sympathy in the hour of their affliction.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED—That we unite with the movement at home and in other places, to render them such financial aid as it is in our power.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED—That a committee be appointed to take up the matter.

The committee was appointed, and over $2,000 was subscribed by those present.

E. ST. JOHN HOWLEY,
Secretary.

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S.—RESOLUTION.

At a public meeting of the citizens of North Sydney, held in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, on April 8th, 1914, with F. L. Kelly, Esq., the Mayor presiding, for the object of devising means to assist the families of those bereft of their bread-winners, who perished in the s.s. Newfoundland disaster, and loss of the Southern Cross. It was moved by Rev. W. R. Turner, seconded by W. C. Hackett, Esq., and confirmed by the meeting unanimously:

THAT this meeting of citizens now in session, deplore the great loss of life, and suffering of the survivors in the great disaster that overtook the above sealers, and extend our sympathies to the widows, orphans and relatives so sadly and suddenly stricken, and trust that God in His great mercy will help them to bear up under their loss, and that we as brethren and British subjects, show our sympathy in a tangible form, by raising subscriptions to alleviate their distress and suffering, and that a copy of said resolution be forwarded to the Premier of Newfoundland, as well as to the daily press.

Collectors were then appointed to wait on the various wards of the town, and before the meeting adjourned contributions to the extent of about two hundred dollars ($200) were paid in.

F. L. KELLY, Chairman,
R. T. SAINTHILL, Sec. Treas.
Suitable replies were sent to all of the above.
