Masons' Celebration

AN IMPOSING GATHERING.

The Freemasons of Newfoundland met last night in the Temple to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the foundation of the Grand Lodge of England. At 7.30 o'clock the District Grand Lodge opened, and after the usual business was disposed of, the members of the Outport Lodges and transient brethren were admitted and given a hearty welcome. The District Grand Master, Bro. C. R. Duder, and the officers of the District Grand Lodge, Scottish Constitution, were then received and the Grand Honour paid in accordance with the ancient ritual.

District Grand Master Bro. J. A. Cliff directed the Secretary, Bro. Edgar, to read the following cable which had been sent to the Grand Secretary of the English Grand Lodge, Sir Edward Letchworth:—

"The Freemasons of Newfoundland send cordial greetings to the Grand Lodge of England on the attainment of its Bicentenary. The past has been rich in its records of fellowship, benevolence and service. May the future prove even more glorious, and the brotherhood be further enriched by all those things that make for the uplifting of the Empire and of Humanity."

District Grand Master Cliff then delivered an excellent and masterful address on the humanitarian objects of Masonry, and the importance and solemnity attached to its obligation. Beginning with the great revival which resulted in the establishment of the Grand Lodge of England, Bro. Cliff went on to say that the programme we were carrying out was similar to the one being used in England under the auspices of the Grand Lodge, which caused him to reflect upon the antiquity as well as the aims and objects of Masonry. By far the oldest secret organization in existence, its universality and humanitarian objects were clothed with peculiar interest not attached to institutions similar in character. At the conclusion of his address the Hymn "To God Our Help in Ages Past" was sung.

Secretary Edgar then read an informative and interesting paper dealing with the history of the Grand Lodge. Eight members of the Craft then rendered "God of Our Fathers."

District Grand Secretary Cowan read a series of congratulatory and fraternal resolutions from the District Grand Lodge of Scotland and was followed by its Grand Master Bro. C. R. Duder, who delivered an inspiring and eloquent address, which has rarely been equalled in the annals of the Society. Preceding the collection, which amounted to $200, "Light of Ages and of Nations" was heartily rendered. The amount collected will no doubt be added to, being in aid of the Freemasons' War Hospital at London.

At the close of the proceedings the brethren remained standing whilst the names of those who had made the Supreme Sacrifice were read; after which District Grand Organist King played the Dead March in Saul. The following are the names of the Masons who have fallen:—

St. John's Lodge—Sergeant Gordon Valentine Boone, Pte. Ewart Gladstone Horwood.

Avalon Lodge—Second Lieutenant Joseph Ebsary.

Hiram Lodge—Lance Corporal Randolph Milligan Winter.

Twillingate Lodge—Private Harvey Lionel Hodge.

Whiteway Lodge—Capt. Eric Stan-ley Ayre, Lieut. Cecil Bayly Cliff, Pte. Herbert Hunt Goodridge, Lieut. Frederick Courtenay Mellor, Capt. James Mould, M.C., D.S.O., Second Lieutenant James Elliott Thomson.

Tasker Lodge—Sergeant Albert George Duffett, D.C.M., Second Lieutenant Gilbert Thomas Gordon.

Northcliffe Lodge—Second Lieutenant John Roy Ferguson, Pte. R. L. Maitment, C. S. M. Robert Brammitt Porter.

The foregoing list does not include the missing who may have been killed.

Following is the contribution of man power to the Newfoundland Regiment from the ranks of local Masonry:—

Promoted Heroes

District Bro. Rev. Canon G. H. Bolt, M.A., closed the proceedings of the memorable event with special prayer, followed by the singing of the National Anthem. Pansy League.

Govt. House, 23 June, 1917.

To the Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Would you kindly let me write to many of our friends in your paper that we hope to have a Pansy Day Saturday next, June 30th, and that many little friends have cheerfully offered to sell pansies and also pansy brooches in the morning. Should the weather be unkind to us and rain then we will send some pansies to our friend Mr. Calver who will sell them for us, and some we will sell at the Matinee in the British Hall, also brooches and candy. I am hoping some friends will send me some candy—nice you know—on a birthday. My little kittens are still in long clothes so they cannot perform yet, but a little friend will let you see them at the British Hall on Saturday, June 30th at 3.30 p.m. Our very kind friends Messrs. Gray & Goodland have some very nice tickets for sale 10 and 20 cents. Why, I think they are nice, because some dear kind friend has put the picture of me and I am looking so happy, and then there is the picture of a mouse; he stands so upright and he is giving three hearty cheers because he heard the good news that the Church of England Orphanage has had such a beautiful gift of a nice house and some lovely grounds. Now the pansies will grow and the little girls and boys will have many a merry game in a nice field. Oh yes, we are very grateful for this very generous gift and to show you all how grateful I feel I am working so hard and I am sure there are many grateful friends who will help the Pansy League to keep the some fires burning in the new Orphanage this coming winter.

Here are a few ways you can help. Please send me some pansies or flowers next Friday evening or Saturday morning, some candy or buy some tickets and send your good spirits to fill the chairs at the British Hall. Buy some flowers from our little friends.

I must away to my kittens. Their names are little Pansy, she is sweet so I am told. So like her mother, well, that's my League to keep the some fires burning in the new Orphanage and does not cry at all so Diane and Daphne said. I must thank those many friends who have sent their subscriptions in. Some have sent an extra one as they are off to the country for the summer to have a jolly good time. One little girl writes, "I wish I could send much more so the little orphans could have a jolly time in the country with many good things." Thank you very much, little friend; just you come and have a look at the new Orphanage, this time next year and see how pretty it will all look. There will be many joyful barks and happy purrs. Even the mice will come to cheer. Many thanks dear little Rex. Are you coming to do some clever tricks next Saturday? I do love your letters they are so jolly and cheer me up. I hope our little friend Nigger at Grand Falls will be happy in his new home. Cheer up dear Nigger, I am sure you will find many a good friend.

With many happy purrs, I am,

Your loving PANSY.

Roosevelt Lets Out at Knockers of England.

Oyster Bay, June 18.—Colonel Roosevelt has taken up the fight against individuals and organizations seeking to foster unfriendly feeling for England in this country. His first broadside was a denunciation of the circulation of an appeal against "fighting England's war."

Addressing a Red Cross meeting here, the Colonel declared that the only reason why the war hasn't been brought to this country rests with England's navy and the British and French armies.

"There actually are Americans who recently have been asking why we fight on the same side as England, our ancient foe. I would like to see any man here unpatriotic enough to say that at this time. Any man who hates England more than he loves the United States should be thrown out of the country."

"A nation must be judged by its conduct in any crisis. An unfriendly attitude against England is as base and unjust as would be an individual grudge between two men because their great-grandfathers fought. The sentiment is that of a traitor."

Letter To the P

The following letter has been forwarded by the trial Workers' Association published at their request.

The Right Honourable Minister of Newfoundland.

Dear Sir,—

You are already in possession of Resolutions on the subject of Control passed on the 15th of a public meeting of the workers of St. John's. At a Committee was appointed to-night reported to a meeting held under the auspices of the Newfoundland Industrial Association. That Committee had a draft letter sent to you greater detail than the reasons why these to. This letter has been approved of by the meeting.

You have doubtless seen certain Resolutions on the Food Prices adopted by the Importers, Dealers, and Flour. We note that you co-operate with any desire, however, to recommendation of these they control one-half of the community generally, and actually amounts to a monopoly of intelligence and fair-minded working classes.

We are not asking your colleagues on the Council to take from the country has always to allow him, namely, an onable return on his capital are ready to admit that the Distributors are making a fair profit. It would be easy to say that all have been this. We learn that the Executive Council has informed by a Royal Commission profits have been mounting in some cases as high as 100 per cent; yet these same Importers
