France Determined on No Change Course.

No Mandate for Germany--Newfoundland Crew Rescued by French Cruiser--Am- ericans and Huns at Loggerheads.

FRANCE IS FIRM.
PARIS, June 11. The determination of France not to consent to any material change in the Treaty with Germany was clearly defined to-day, after the meeting of Four Council and various commissions which failed to reach any solution of the deadlock on important points on which differences of opinion have arisen. Clemenceau especially is firm in his refusal to agree to the admission of Germany to the League of Nations immediately.

BOLSHEVIK SUCCESS.
NEW YORK, June 11. Bolshevik forces on Monday captured Ufa city, recently taken by the troops of Admiral Kolchak after three days of sanguinary fighting, according to a Russian wireless despatch received here to-day.

THE ANSWER.
PARIS, June 11. The reply to the German counter proposals agreed upon by the Peace Conference refuses the German request for a mandate for former German colonies. A lengthy memorandum gives the reason for refusal and explains the operations of the League of Nations on colonial matters.

UNFORTUNATE CLASHES.
COBLENZ, June 11. Hostility between the Americans and German civilians in the occupied region, which has been increasing recently, has resulted in additional clashes during the last few days. In one instance an American was killed and in other encounters in various places of the occupied zone four were wounded. At Third Army Headquarters it was said that the number of Germans killed by Americans in fights during the six months of occupation totalled no more than five.

FULL EXPLANATION.
PARIS, June 11. It is understood that assurance will be given the Germans regarding the details of the army of occupation, the size of it, the cost of its maintenance and the duration of the occupation under favorable circumstances. The Germans called the attention of the Powers in this connection to the belief held by the German authorities that they were paying for the maintenance of a large number of soldiers not actually in the occupied regions, but working in France, and asked relief for this situation.

LOST WITH ALL HANDS.
LONDON, June 11. The Admiralty announced to-day that a British submarine operating in the Baltic Sea is presumed to have been lost with all hands. An official statement from the Russian Soviet Government received in London on June 7th included this sentence, "The submarine which attacked our destroyers in the Gulf of Kopenia (Southwest of Petrograd) was sunk by artillery fire."

WILL ACT UNOFFICIALLY.
PARIS, June 11. President Wilson to-day told the representatives of Irish Societies in America that he would do what he could unofficially to bring the Irish question to the attention of the other Peace Commissioners.

PROGRESS MADE.
PARIS, June 11. Distinct progress was reported to-night in the reply of the Allied and Associated Governments to the German counter proposals, and indications are that the reply will be ready for delivery on Friday.

NO LOSS.
CONSTANTINOPLE, June 11. The palace of the Yildiz Kiosk, inhabited by the Sultan, was destroyed by fire to-day.

NO DECISION.
PARIS, June 11. The meeting of the Executive Committee of the General Labor Federations yesterday received no decision regarding the current strikes contrary to expectations. June 4th was fixed as the date upon which a joint movement will be initiated with British, Italian and Belgian labor organizations.

NOT THE ONLY.
PARIS, June 11. It became known that Fontan's machine was destroyed when the French aviator, attempting the trans-Atlantic flight, was forced to descend near Zaragoza, Spain.

BUT THE WIRES ARE OPERATING.
CHICAGO, June 11. A national-wide strike of Union Commercial Telegraphers, called by Koenenkamp, became effective at 7 o'clock this morning, central time. Union officials estimated that sixty thousand telegraphers would leave their keys during the day and that on next Monday upwards of one hundred thousand electrical workers would go on strike, while officials of the Telegraph Companies asserted no such number of employees were involved.

THE ORDINARY PRECAUTION.
PARIS, June 11. The French Govt. which has charge of the police arrangements and supervision of the German delegates at Versailles, recently doubled the guards there to prevent outside communication with the Germans. At the same time arrangements to see the members of the German delegation whenever they desired. Among other delegations some comment has been aroused over the fact that the French are the only ones having access to communication with the German delegation, can sound the Germans out informally from time to time and thus enjoy considerable advantage in the peace negotiations.

HARD CONDITIONS.
PARIS, June 11. Karl Renner, heading the Austrian peace mission, addressed a letter to the conference, complaining of the "hard conditions" imposed upon his country, which is "overwhelmed with despair." The letter will be laid before the Four Council to-day.

CREW RESCUED.
HALIFAX, June 11. The French cruiser Somme to-day took off Capt. MacDonald and crew of the Nfd. tern schooner J. B. Kitchen, from Halifax to Queens-town with lumber, on fire 130 miles east by north of Sabie Island. It is believed here the crew will be landed in Newfoundland.

BRITISH FINANCE.
LONDON, June 11. (Via Reuter's.)—It is definitely learned that the conditions of the new British Loan Bill include annual drawings of bonds for redemption. The holders of bonds drawn will receive a bonus. This is a revolutionary departure in the history of British loans.

WILL RECOGNIZE OMSK GOVT.
PARIS, June 11. The Council of Four has the complete text of the reply of Admiral Kolchak, the anti-Bolshevik leader in the Omsk Govt. of Russia, to the Allied note concerning recognition of the Omsk Govt. by the Allies. Recognition of the Omsk Govt. it is believed will not be much longer delayed.

AND WHAT ELSE?
LONDON, June 11. The secret negotiations at Paris and the non-publication of the treaty with Germany have been denounced here so often that the action of the United States Senate in making public the text of the treaty has been given much prominence in the newspapers.

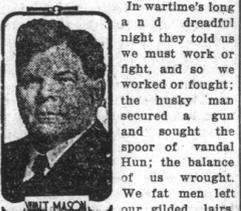

Laundry Invaded.
Hamilton Street was the scene of some disorder about 10 o'clock last night, when a pair, who had drunken copiously of firewater, tackled a Chinese Laundry on that thoroughfare, and having broken some window glass, turned their attention to the proprietor for remonstrating with them. In the melee the Chinaman was knocked down and mauled by the aggressors, and was so badly hurt that the services of a doctor had to be secured. The offenders decamped before the arrival of the police, but their names being known, they will be asked to attend at the Bar of the Police Court later.

Viscount Melville Acquitted & Restored.

On Thursday, June 12, 1896, Henry Dundas, a distinguished Statesman of his time, who had been created Viscount Melville in 1802, was, after fifteen days' trial, acquitted by his fellow peers as to all the charges that had been brought against him. He had been accused by the House of Commons in 1805, and had resigned the office of First Lord of the Admiralty, and on May 9 his name was erased from the roll or list of members of the Privy Council. After this acquittal he was restored to the honour. He was accused of what is called "malversation," which word, in accordance with its Latin origin is applied to every kind of "misbehaviour" in office, but it has special reference by bribery, and to extortion or illegally exacting money; and upon all such charges the House of Lords adjudged him "not guilty." Born in 1740, the son of a Scottish Judge, Lord Arncliffe, he, after education in Edinburgh University, became Solicitor-General in 1773, and afterwards Lord Advocate, Joint Keeper of the Signet for Scotland, and a Privy Councillor. Afterwards he was in succession Treasurer of the Royal Navy, President of the Board of Control, Secretary for the Home Department and Secretary of War, till the retirement from the Premiership of William Pitt, whose side he had supported. Viscount Melville, who died in 1841 was highly esteemed for his services by his Scottish fellow-countrymen, who erected a monument to his memory in Edinburgh, and his descendant succeeds him still in the fifth Viscount Melville.

OUT OF TOWN.—Dr. C. J. Howlett, Dentist, will be out of town until further notice.

WORKING.

DR. C. J. HOWLETT

In wartime's long and dreadful night they told us we must work or fight, and so we worked or fought; the husky man secured a gun and sought the spoor of vandalism; the balance of us wrought. We fat men left our gilded lairs, our hammocks and our easy chairs, and filled the fertile soil; we pawed around and trilled our song, and tried to show the passing throng new curves in honest toil. "When war is done," we said, "gadooks, again we'll seek our inglenooks, and bask on beds of ease; until shall come that blissful day we'll grow our luscious bales of hay, and raise our bomb-proof peas." Now war is but a tale that's told, the sword has rust, the guns are cold, no armies thunder by; but still we have to dig and hoe, and saw and split, and plant and sow—for now it's work or die. It costs so much to stay on earth we have no time for hours of mirth for dreams or idle games; we have no time for languid ease; we have to work like bumble bees around our quilting frames. With labour we are face to face; alas, it is a ground-hog case, we have to work or die; we have to rustle for the bones; there is no place for dreaming drones beneath the bending sky.

CONVALESCENCE!

Its high food value, ease of assimilation and attractive flavour make "Ovaltine" invaluable during convalescence. It is largely used in hospitals for that condition, and in cases of Sleeplessness, Nervous Breakdown and Shell-shock, throughout the war "Ovaltine" has been included in the official standard parcel sent to invalid prisoners.

"Ovaltine" is a highly concentrated extract of the vitalizing and building up properties of Malt, Milk and Eggs, flavoured with Cocoa, and provides the most nourishing and sustaining food-drink possible.

During the whole process of manufacture "Ovaltine" is untouched by hand.

OVALTINE

BUILDS UP BRAIN, NERVE and BODY.

"Ovaltine" also makes a delightful beverage, which is taken with or between meals instead of tea, coffee or cocoa, having the added advantage that little or no sugar is required.
