C. L. B. CADETS. ANNIVERSARY CHURCH PARADE.

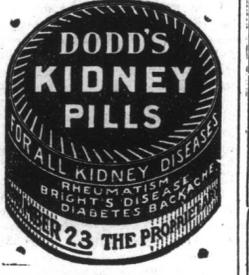

The Church Services in connection with the 29th Birthday Anniversary of the founding of the Church Lads' Brigade in London, Nov. 11th, 1892, (St. Martin's Day) took place at St. Mary's Church, Southside. These services are held in the city parish churches yearly in turn—last year the services being held at St. Thomas's Church. The Brigade yesterday established a record. The first parade was at 8 a.m. when all ranks including the Lt.-Col. Commanding, Chaplains, etc., the new recruits proceeded in full uniform to St. Mary's Church to kneel at the Altar and ask God's Blessing upon the work of the Brigade throughout the world and particularly upon the work of the Newfoundland Contingent. About 120 members attended from all parts of the city. A goodly number of Old Comrades joined in the service—some of them being fathers of families all proud to be able to avail themselves of the Blessed privilege of partaking in this Service. The Bishop, Regimental Chaplain, Rev. Jacob Brinton, Battalion Chaplain, Rev. A. B. Stirling, Rector and Chaplain; Rev. H. L. Pike, Chaplain of C. Co., were the ministering priests—and all being Brigade Officers, lent a deeper spiritual interest in the Holy Service. At 3 p.m. the Battalion had some 407 all ranks on the Roll Call. All the Companies were present, Band, Bugle Band, Colours in charge of Lieut Harold Hayward. Old Comrades formed in two Companies under Battalion Sergt-Major Peckham their President and Sergt-Major Noseworthy—their numbers were about 120 strong. The Battalion proceeded along Harvey Road to LeMarchant Road via Springdale St., Water St., to St. Mary's for afternoon service. The Church grounds had been nicely decorated by Messrs. Whitten and Burridge with flags including the Brigade colours of the Red, Yellow and Blue, showing that the Church officials were glad to welcome their Brigade friends. The building was crowded and we believe some hundreds of church folk were not able to gain admittance. The Service was conducted by the following clergymen. His Lordship Bishop White, Rev. Dr. Geo. H. Bolt, M. A., Canon of the Cathedral who was the preacher, Rev. Jacob Brinton, Rev. Captain Clayton, Hon. Chaplain to the Forces and Rev. Arthur Sterling, Rector. The Brigade heartily enjoyed the Services, the hymns being heartily sung—the Brigade hymn "Fight the Good Fight" and "Through the night of doubt and sorrow," being special favourites. After the service was concluded with the National Anthem—Organist Lloyd—who is a countryman of Mr. Lloyd George, O.M., favoured the Battalion with the National Anthem of Wales as a finale. Returning to the Armoury via Water Street and Military Road the parade was addressed by Lt.-Colonel Goodridge who announced that he was very gratified to see so many of all ranks joining together in both Church Services, and whilst this spirit exists, the heart of the Battalion beats true and assures the health and vitality of the organization has a future before it. He kindly referred to having had a telegraph message of greeting and congratulation to the Brigade on their anniversary indirectly from Sergt. Harold Blackler, No. 1, now in Boston, U.S.A., the boy who by his persistent canvassing lads to join, etc., and energies induced the late Rev. J. S. Thompson, Rector of the Cathedral Parish in 1892 to organize a Company of the C. L. B. in St. John's and undertake its responsibilities. The final meeting was held in the basement of the building known as the Springdale Street School and their first officers were the late Captain Melville then Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, and Captain C. Wearing Hayward, now of British Columbia. Lt.-Col. Goodridge appreciated the message from Sergt. Blackler and was delighted Sergeant No. 1 was still alive and remembered his old brigade. A number of medals and promotions were distributed and we hope to secure the official list later. The third lap of the Armoury celebrations concludes on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Tuesday the Armoury will be a regular blaze of electricity, the night of the big tea and concert to the boys at 8 o'clock by the Brigade's lady friends who provide tables. A big feature will be Lt.-Col. Goodridge's address giving a condensed story of the growth of the C.L.B. since 1892 up to date—its founding, the early officers, the Colonels, the building of the Armoury, the Camps, etc., etc. The Brigade hopes to have present as special guests, His Excellency the Governor, Colonel Outerbridge and R. G. Rendell, O.B.E. On Wednesday the Old Comrades are holding their anniversary celebrations by a smoker in the gymnasium at the Armoury, at which Lt.-Col. Goodridge presides. President Peckham and committee are keeping "open house" that evening, no admission fee, and wishes every Old Comrade and ex-member of the C.L.B. to be present so as to unite in joining their festivities. The Brigade can certainly be congratulated generally on yesterday's parade, the Old Comrades particularly on their ranks, and we hope this high standard will be maintained by that unity of action so desirable in every department.—Q.

Broke Leg During Afternoon

MARRIED SAME EVENING.
 A broken leg proved no hindrance to Dornell Kerr, of Glace Bay, in making a venture upon the sea of matrimony. Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mr. Kerr was practicing with the Caledonia football team, in his usual forward position. He was tackled and in the mixup his leg was broken. It was the date set for his marriage to Miss Florence McKelgan, daughter of Mrs. Kate McKelgan, South St. Despite this difficulty Mr. Kerr had the crippled leg set and put in splints and then a cast. A few hours later he and Miss McKelgan were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. McKelgan by the Rev. Mr. McLeod—the groom standing on crutches. The bride was given away by her oldest brother, Mr. Dan McKelgan. They were unattended. The honeymoon trip under the present circumstances, will be postponed until Mr. Kerr has recovered from his injury.—Sydney Post, Nov. 10.
