Sre. Rose, Que., June 15.—The pretty little village of Ste. Rose, a fashionable summer resort near Montreal, was the scene of a frightful catastrophe yesterday, but nothing was known of it till to-day. Shortly after 2 o'clock, with hardly a warning, a terrible cyclone struck the village, carrying everything before it. Houses were swept away, trees torn from their roots, and animals picked up bodily and deposited many rods distant.

Out of the 25 two were dead when found, one died shortly after, twelve were seriously wounded, and the remainder more or less injured.

The force of the tornado was terrible in the open country. It destroyed the farm buildings and barus of John, Thomas and Alpheus Kimpton, and in all probability killed Mrs. A. Views of Ron, Wilfrid Laurier, Bon David Mills and Other Prominent OTTAWA, June 15 .- The chief topic o conversation in parliamentary circles is the ofter extended to Hou. Edward Blake of a seat in the British House of Commons from the Irish parliamentary leaders. The opinions of some of the members of the Commons as expressed are as follows:

HON. WILFRID LAURIFIL.

HON, WILFRID LAURIER.

"I never talk to newspaper men for publication." said the conteous leader of the Opposition, Hon. Wilfrid Laurier; "but you can say that I have no knowledge of what Mr. Blake's intentions are. We can hardly afford to lose him in Canada, can hardly afford to lose him in Canada, but if he did enter the British House of Commons he would soon rise to the front and be of great assistance to all parties. HON. DAVID MILLS.

"I have heard," said Hon. David Mills, "from certain independent sources, that the offer was to be made. Mr. Biake can be of greater services to the Irish party and Mr. Gladstone in shaping a home rule bill than any other man so far as I know on either side of the Atlantic. His thorough acquaintance with the federal system, his side of the Atlantic, and his great legal attainments would all go to make his services invaluable if he were disposed to accept the offer. Of course he would require to be a member of the Government in settling the Irish question. We would sustain a great loss in Canada if he were to withdraw. I have myself hoped to see his return to active political life in the Parliament of Canada at an early day." Hon. L. H. Davies.

If it were so backed it would mean, in the event of Mr. Gladstone being returned to power, that Mr. Blake would have a position in the Cabinet. From Mr. Blake's thorough knowledge of the federal system of government, his services to Mr. Gladstone in the framing of a home rule bill cannot be well over-estimated." ver-estimated.

M. F. WALSH.

"I believe if Mr. Blake accepts the invitation the best results must result, always supposing he would follow the lines laid down and acted on by Mr. Parnell, that is, complete independence of any and every British party, Liberal or Conservative, which would not give to Ireland the same measure of home rule that we in Canada enjoy. As a stranger to the differences which exist between the two sections of the Irish party, he would two sections of the Irish party, he would be in a position to bring about that entente cordials without which nothing effective be in a position to bring about that entented cordiale without which nothing effective can be accomplished.
