"Blue Blood" in the Farmers' Advocate for August writes in favor of imposing a liceuse fee of say $100 on all stallions kept for service, horses to be registered with the proper authorities, sworn copy of pedigree filed and certificate of qualified veterinarian produced that the animal is free from sereditary disease, etc. After necessary expenses are defrayed he would turn over the fees to the local agricultural societies.

Horses that, are afraid of the cars are doubly dangerous, as no one can travel at all without coming in contact with the cars. The way to break horses to the cars is not to drive them in a carriage as near to them as possible and then punish them with the whip to make them stand still, but rather get them kept a night or two right close to the railroad, where they can see the cars a dozen times a day, and they will get so many letters, have you get so many letters, have judy in coming or ne more? Trotting is growing slowly and steadily in England, likewise where a new market is gradually opening for the sale of high formed road horses, as well as track trotformed road horses, as well as track trotters. Alexandra Park is the chief arena for trotting in England, where $5,000 worth of purses had been given up to the 1st of July, as against $3,000 for the whole of last year. The entry list shows that 177 horses have started in trotting races in 1891, with the season half finished, as against 133 in 1890. All this betokens a growing interest in the sport, and shows couclusively that England must look to America for her trotting sires.

AU SABLE, July, 1891. DEAR AUNT PRUDENCE:

A sucking colt by Allerton, 2:13, dam Miss Redmon, 2:293, by Bourbon Wilker, was recently sold for $2,500.

Good grooming brings comfort, comfort segets good spirits, spirits awaken handhome appearance, and appearance sells the horse.

Watch the feet of the young horse with his first shoes on. Many cases of bad feet are caused by carelessness with the first et of shoes.

Baron Hirsch's winnings on the turf thus far this season are reported to be $40,000, all of which he has devoted to charitable institutions.

We recall the names of 25 trotting horses that within the past 30 years have been sold for the enormous sum of $838,000.—

In Japan, horses are backed into their stalls, then a door is closed at the head, which has a grain and hay rack conveniently constructed, to which the nag is hitched. When needed, the door is swung

New York. Over 1,000 persons were present, including nearly all the owners of eastern racing stables. The bidding was lively and good prices realized. The lot sold for $55,950-an average of $1,512 16.
Individuals went as high as $6,000.

DEAR AUNT PRUDENCE:

You get so many letters, have you room for one more? I am a boy 12 years old. I do not go to school, but stay home and study with a tutor. I should dearly love to go to school and have a lot of other boys to play with. Perhaps papa will let me this fall. But mother thinks schools are so rough, thoug I should like to rough it. I have no brothers or sisters, and very few cousins. But if you will be my aunty I shall have a great number of cousins.

I have never been in London, though both my parents used to live there. Mamma says the houses have far more ground around them than here in Toronto. Only fancy, our house is right on a street, and we have only a skinny little back yard, but as we live near the Horticultural Gardens, I often go there. To you know how to play "Jack-knife?" Don't you think it is great fun? I am your loving nephew,

We often hear it said that there is a place for every good horse at a fair price, but I find it is much easier to find a place for some good horses than others. For instance, if one has a good-sized, nice-looking, sound and safe gentleman's driver that can troi in three or three and a half minutes, it is not hard to find a place for im at the price generally asked for that kind, say $250 to $350. Or if one has a strotter that can go three times in 2:30 and is by a sire of race horses it is not a hard matter to find a customer for him or her at a good stiff price, say $1,000 to $2,000, according to age, size, soundness, etc. But when one has a horse that can trot about 2:40 and no faster, and is valued at from $500 to $700, it is often quite a sard matter to find a place for him at whatever he ought to bring, be he ever so good a horse individually. When a man buys a horse for speed he wante screen speed, and nothing slower than 2:30 will do. A 2:40 mer is little better than a 3:00 horse for the road. When a horse if and ready for the market, and if what some good customer will give, and then try again for another good one.—[A. T. Maxim in Horse and Stable.
