

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

STRAWBERRIES WERE SOON SNAPPED UP

Three Crates Sold Like Wild-fire at 20 Cents a Box.

A RISE IN PRICE OF OATS

Sold Again Today at From $1.58 to $1.64—Other Quotations on Local Market.

The market this morning was by no means an active one. The scarcity of farmers and the slow buying of purchasers, created an air of dissatisfaction on both sides. Green vegetables were the best sellers of the day, as far as small purchases went, and these were offered in abundant quantities.

Asparagus found a ready sale from 60 to 75 cents a dozen, as did also radishes, rhubarb and spinach. Lettuce increased ten cents a dozen over last market's price, and was evidently considered too high, as there was plenty for sale at 10 o'clock.

New beets were offered in rare cases for one dollar a dozen. The supply was small and the demand not any too brisk.

Cucumbers dropped a little and the very best qualities could be picked up at 75 cents, the outside price, while inferior grades were selling as low as 40 cents a dozen.

Butter and eggs, together with the other dairy products, remained firm.

Butchers' Meats.

Butchers' meats were normal in most cases, while beef by the carcass dropped about a half a cent to one cent a pound. Veal also dropped one cent, while the others remained firm.

Spring lamb was not offered. Hay, straw and oats were by far the most plentiful offerings on the square. The sale was rapid, and the prices reasonable.

About 50 loads of hay were disposed of, and dropped a little in price. Number one hay only brought $12.50.

Straw went at the previous price, but oats took a rather startling jump, and sold from $1.58 to $1.64.

Flowers, including geraniums and pansies, were profuse. Pansies had the best sale at 15 cents a box.

Three crates of strawberries went like wildfire at 20 cents a box.
