SURPRISES IN PLAYGROUND LEAGUE LAST NIGHT

Queen's Park Boys Still Leading Their League.

The Playgrounds League furnished several surprises last night and the teams are promising several more on Friday night next. The main surprise in the games last evening was the trouncing that the Tecumseh girls got at the hands of the Riverview team; This former team had not lost a game and when the West Siders started out in the first inning and hammered in ten runs, the girls from the south side seemed paralyzed and never got going at all. This game leaves these two teams tie for the lead. Another surprise was the defeat of the Queen's Park girls by the Thames Park team. This latter team have broken up one or two other sure things, and will surely have to be reckoned with later on.

In the boys games, the chief surprise was the return to form of the Lord Roberts team, who trimmed the fastgoing Alexandras by a good score, Queen's Park held their lead of the league by defeating Bottrills in a good game.
