

Gives Away Wealth; Famous Paris Market; Chaplin of France

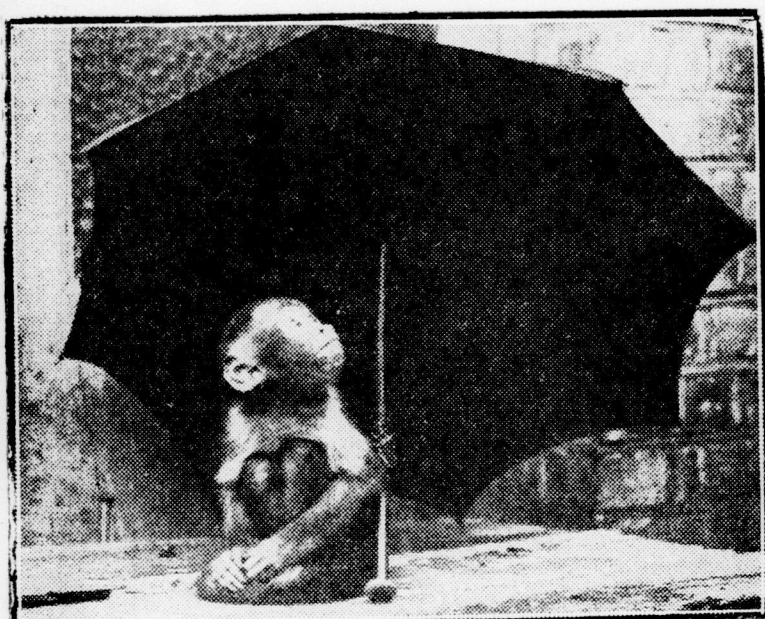

Brampton people were given some idea of what damage floods can do when the Etobicoke river surged through the business centre recently, destroying thousands of dollars worth of property. For stretches of fully 500 feet on two of the main streets the water was over three feet deep

Very rarely has there been found in Spain, it is said, such a charming beauty as that of Senorita Manuella de Ubarry, daughter of the former Spanish minister to Belgrade

Grammar school girls in Tokio, Japan, are shown attending a class in domestic science

It looks like rain. This little monkey at the London Zoo is prepared for any kind of English climate

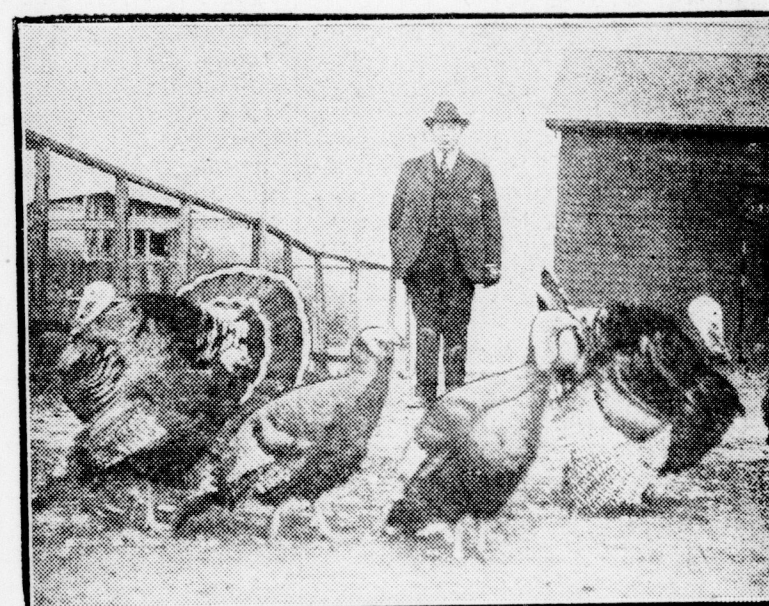

Who said the Japanese were a small race? Here's Yoshio Saramaru, Japanese wrestling champion, who is only 22 years of age and is six feet, four inches tall

Here are the bridesmaids of the wedding in England recently of Dr. Margaret Howell and Dr. J. W. Mann, who, along with the bride, the bridegroom and the man who gave the bride away, were all doctors. The majority of the guests also belonged to the medical profession

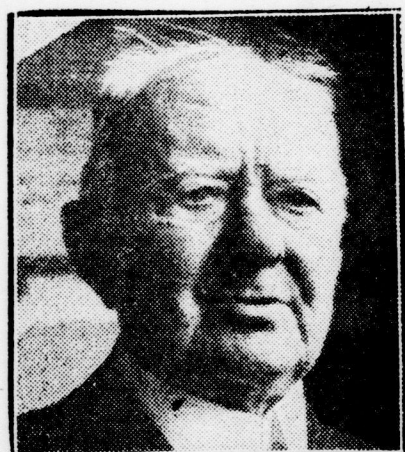

Above is pictured Madame Fokina, noted Russian ballet dancer, as she sailed from New York recently to fill engagements in London

Perhaps he is one of the best-known men in Toronto. He takes great interest in farm life, as this photograph shows. And at present he is down south signing "R. J. Fleming" to hotel registers

The Carreau de Temple is one of the famous old second-hand markets in Paris, which is patronized to a great extent by many of the middle class and not exclusively by the poor

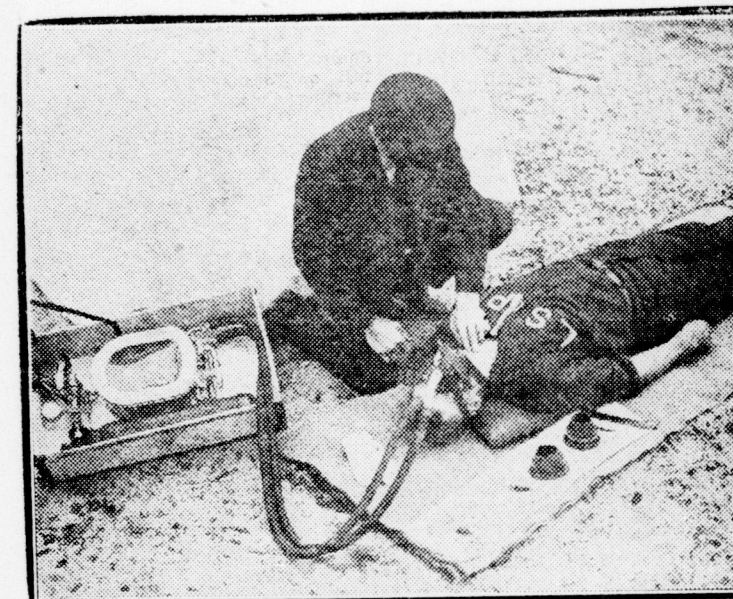

Leopold Schepp, of New York, started life as a poor boy and became a millionaire many times over. Now he is devoting his time to giving away his money. The other day he started a $2,500,000 foundation for the aid of New York's youth

Spain's wealth, stories of galleons of silver and gold, all these represented in a single person, the Marquis de Lorian, who is to-day the richest man in that country. He is now in New York to study finances in the offices of J. P. Morgan and Co.

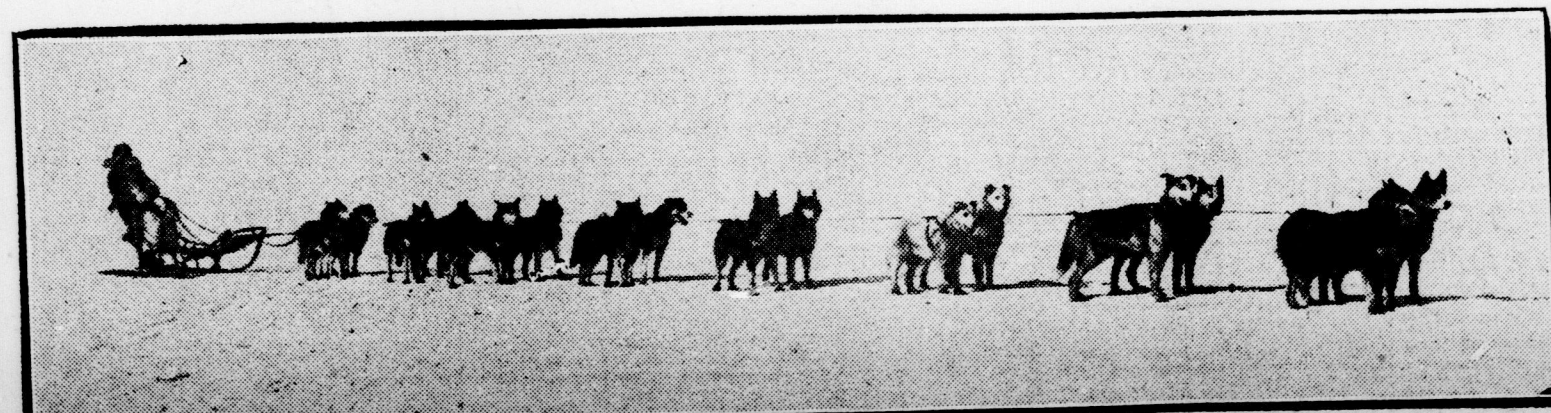

Indicating that he believes women fitted for big government appointments, President Coolidge has named Mrs. Jeannette, of Salt Lake City, to be collector of customs at Honolulu, Hawaii

Members of the Toronto life-saving crew believe in preparedness, as is shown in this photograph, where two men are learning the ins and outs of one of the pulmotor devices now in use

Edouard Mascart, champion featherweight fighter of Europe, arrived on this continent recently with the hope of adding to his laurels

This recent photograph shows Leonard Seppala, champion musher of the northland, and his strong team of huskies, who earned

Max Linder, known as the "Charlie Chaplin" of France and whose eyes are valued at $1,000,000, rehearses a turn for a charity fete to be given for the benefit of the Union des Artistes