

HAWAII BELIEVED.

Americans Charged Over Hauling Down of the Stars and Stripes.

The Provisional Government Able to Maintain Itself—The Chief Danger Japanese Interference.

HONOLULU, H. I., April 6.—Probably no more dilatory task ever fell to the lot of an American seaman than was imposed upon Lieut. Draper, of the U. S. marine corps of the Boston, who has been stationed at the Government house since the Provisional Government assumed power...

On the afternoon of March 31 the commission held a lengthy and secret conference with President Dole and the military...

These residents who were inclined to support the commissioner through their opinion of his good intentions quoted constitution and international law to sustain their position...

There was a sudden hush of the throng as Lieut. Draper, U. S. Marine, raised his bugle and sounded the call in clear and distinct notes...

As the crowd dispersed from Palace square it was remarked by many whites with surprise that no demonstration of any kind had been made when the Hawaiian flag was raised beyond the "present arms" of the provisional troops...

As the crowd dispersed from Palace square it was remarked by many whites with surprise that no demonstration of any kind had been made when the Hawaiian flag was raised beyond the "present arms" of the provisional troops...

As the crowd dispersed from Palace square it was remarked by many whites with surprise that no demonstration of any kind had been made when the Hawaiian flag was raised beyond the "present arms" of the provisional troops...

Japanese subjects or the Hawaiians themselves.

Minister Stevens, Commissioner Blount and Admiral Skerrett consulted over the matter, and it is stated, agreed that Japanese interference would be a not of hostility to the United States and American interests demanded that such be repelled.

No hostile demonstration, however, has been made by any party up to this writing. So many rumors have been circulated regarding the intentions of the Consul Fugli...

Several official changes have been made recently. A. S. Clegg, father of Prince Kaulani, retires from the collectorship of customs. His successor is not yet named.

On the afternoon of March 31 the commission held a lengthy and secret conference with President Dole and the military...

These residents who were inclined to support the commissioner through their opinion of his good intentions quoted constitution and international law to sustain their position...

There was a sudden hush of the throng as Lieut. Draper, U. S. Marine, raised his bugle and sounded the call in clear and distinct notes...

As the crowd dispersed from Palace square it was remarked by many whites with surprise that no demonstration of any kind had been made when the Hawaiian flag was raised beyond the "present arms" of the provisional troops...

As the crowd dispersed from Palace square it was remarked by many whites with surprise that no demonstration of any kind had been made when the Hawaiian flag was raised beyond the "present arms" of the provisional troops...

As the crowd dispersed from Palace square it was remarked by many whites with surprise that no demonstration of any kind had been made when the Hawaiian flag was raised beyond the "present arms" of the provisional troops...

CAPITAL NOTES.

Statue of Sir John Macdonald for the Parliament Grounds—World's Fair Arrangements.

Tribute to Darcy McGee—R. C. Overlooked—John White's Company Incorporated.

OTTAWA, April 14.—Tenders inviting artists to submit models for a statue to Sir John Macdonald, to be erected on the Parliament grounds, Ottawa, will be called for in a few days. The statue is to be of bronze, nine feet high, the models to be on foot...

Mr. Laska, World's Fair commissioner, is here from Chicago. He says the Canadian department is better advanced than that of other countries. The falls cannot possibly be in readiness by May 1.

Judge McCright arrived here from England today, his health being greatly improved. He proceeds to British Columbia shortly.

The newspapers are urging a national tribute to Darcy McGee, the inventor of the ventilator for railway and street cars, has received a large sum for his patent.

The depositors in the Government Savings Bank for March exceed the withdrawal by $3,000.

John White, ex-M.P., G. Boswell and others have been incorporated as the Toronto and British Columbia Lumber Co., Ltd., with a capital of $1,000,000.

The Nanaimo Infantry Company, which drills at local headquarters, will be inspected October 7.

OTTAWA, April 15.—It is stated here that the Behring Sea Arbitration refused to admit, that containing Mr. Macdon's observations made last summer at the Pribilof Islands. It will, however, be just as effectively used in the argument.

PARIS, April 14.—Mr. Carter, counsel for the United States, continued his address to-day before the Behring Sea court of arbitration. He further discussed the law governing the tribunal and likened unrestricted destruction of seals to piracy.

PARIS, April 14.—The police made an attempt this evening to disperse an enormous crowd outside the People's Hall. The crowd resisted stubbornly, and many workmen were wounded.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The officers of the Nicaragua Canal company deny emphatically the statement made by Count Kerarthy that their scheme is purely a political measure, and secondary in proportion to the Panama Canal.

PHENOMENAL ICEBERGS. MONTREAL, April 15.—The British bark Ariadne, Capt. Croft, arrived here yesterday from Tacoma. She confirms the reports heretofore received of the phenomenal ice drifts from the Antarctic ocean on January 17, in lat. 10, south; long. 45 west.

COAST CROP REPORT. (Seattle Press-Times.) Local reports from the valleys tributary to the Sound tell of inactivity, owing to the weather. The work of plowing the new-down general everywhere stopped with the rain.

HOME RULE.

Continuation of the Discussion in the Imperial Parliament by Hon. Mr. Asquith.

Michael Davitt's Position—A Member Called to Order by the Speaker.

LONDON, April 14.—In the House of Commons to-day, Rt. Hon. Mr. Gladstone continued a desire to close the debate on the second reading of the bill on Tuesday next.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

While Mr. Asquith was commenting upon the conversion to constitutional Home Rule of Michael Davitt, "once a conspirator and rebel," a dozen or more Irish members, suddenly rising, called the Speaker's attention to an epithet used by Lord Cranborne.

Lord Cranborne thereupon made an odd apology. "I said nothing," he said, "but what was true. I quite admit that the expression escaped me, but it was not intended for the ear of the House."

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

BOUND TO RULE.

Belgrade, April 14.—The details of the Servian coup d'etat were carried out with remarkable swiftness and simplicity.

The king and the cabinet ministers responded to an invitation to dine in the old palace last evening. Eight were seated at dinner, the King presiding.

When King Alexander announced the dismissal of the reports and ministers, Belimirovich rushed up to the King and violently protested against the King's action.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

Mr. Asquith, continuing, strove as a reasonable date for closing the debate. Home Secretary Asquith delivered an earnest address in behalf of the bill, which was listened to with considerable interest.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

Descendants of the Great Explorer in New York En Route for Chicago.

The Duke of Veragua Accorded the Highest Honors.

New York, April 15.—The American line steamer New York, from Southampton, with the lineal descendants of Christopher Columbus, Duke of Veragua on board, arrived at quarantine shortly after 6 o'clock this morning.

The Duke is accompanied by the Duchess of Veragua, their sons Don Christopher Columbus y Aquilera, Don Carlos d' Aquilera, Don Maria de las Colonias y Aquilera, Don Pedro Columbus and the Marquis and Marquise Barbolis, all of whom are descendants of Christopher Columbus.

London, April 14.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says the wording of King Alexander's proclamation is quite in accord with the military leaders, and that the army supported the coup d'etat.

London, April 14.—It is now pretty well settled that the Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

London, April 14.—The Duke of Bedford will take up the duties of the Alderman command on Oct. 1. Since he became mayor general twelve years ago his promotion has gone on by strict regularity.

WORLD'S FAIR.

Newly Elected Directors—Object Lesson in Civil Engineering—The Opening Ceremonies.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The newly-elected directors of the World's Fair met in special session this morning and re-elected President H. H. Higginbotham, Ferd W. Peck and Treasurer A. F. Seeburgner.