THE VICTORIA WEEKLY COLONIST FRIDAY, JANUARY 25- 1895.

From THE DAILY COLONIST. JANUARY 23. THE CITY.

THERE is some talk of establishing a Congregational church in Victoria, and all persons interested in the matter are requested to communicate with Mr. William Scowcroft, at the city hall. PERSISTENT and frequently insolent beggars-able-bodied men nsually-are becom-ing a crying nuisance on Victoria streets. The law in such cases made and provided should be given more exercise. A NUMEBOUSLY attended meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association was held last night in the Adelphi building. The proceedings were specially interesting several spirited speeches were made.

THE city police are giving attention to several cases of alleged impersonation in connection with the recent aldermanic elec. tion in Centre Ward. If the facts are found to be as represented lively times are in store for one of the successful candidates. THE ladies' auxiliary of the Jubilee hospital held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to give an At Home in the AOU.W., hall on the evening of February 6. Tickets will be sold at 50 cents each, inclusive of refreshments. THE funeral of the late Alexander Eric Mackay took place yesterday afternoon from St. James church, Ven Archdeacon Scriven conducting the services. The pallbearers were Messrs T. W. Patherson, H. P. Bell, J. H. Gray, Tom Kains, T. E. Wooldridge and Eric McKay.

A VERY pleasant parlor concert was given at Regent's Park, the residence of Hon. D. W. Higgins, last evening, in aid of the funds of the King's Daughters. The pro-gramme was in charge of Mr. W. Edgar Buck, and was provided by some of the best talent in the city.

(Special to the Coronser.) VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 23. -- Vancouver's poultry show opened at 10 o'clock this morning with a grand chorus of the kings of the poultry yard. The affair is a great success. Plumper's Pass, Englishman's Bay, Victoria, Vancouver, Westminster, Nanai-mo and many other places are represented. Mesars. Sturdy, McTaggart, Wallis, Riley, and E. Odson are the principal exhibitors. There are over 500 exhibits in all, very few common fowls being among them. Mr. Sturdy's English Hamburgs are probably the most valuable birds in British Columbia. Mr. Philp's display of pigeons is also very attractive.

The City of Nanaimo will take over a specially good Bugby combination to the Biack Diamond City on Saturday, to contest the football premiership with the Nansimo Hornets. The team are confident and en-
