TORONTO CENTRAL PROPERTY is most effectually depreciated in value by being hawked about by every Tom, Dick and Harry. We find that large capitalists profer investing in something that is fresh and has snap in it. Stale, mouldy stuff that has been peddled about the market they don't care for Owners of good property will always command a readier and better price by entrusting it to one agent only.

The property (being part of Lot No. 8 in the 1st Concession from the Bay in the Township of York) has a frontage on Queen-street of about 374 feet by a depth extending northward to the Grand Trunk Railway of about 5000 feet. (The extension of Gerrard-Street to the east will run through this property). To the north of the railway track (and in addition to the above) there are over 9 acres extending about 2000 feet northward to the Danforth-road and having a frontage on the Danforth-road of about LORNE PARK 200 feet. The measurements are the result of a survey just completed and are believed to be accurate, but to avoid the possibility of disputes intending purchasers must satisfy themselves of their correctness and tenders must be of a specified sum and not by the foot or acre, and may be for one or more parcels or the whole BECRET SOCIETY MURDERS. Death Decreed by Unknown Tribunals—A Leaf of Clan-na-Gael History.

New York, July 2.—The reyelations in the murder case of Dr. Oronin have surprised many people, probably most people who have read the story from day to day. They should not have been surprised, however, for if they had run back in their memories to the notorious assassinations of the past ten years connected with the cause of Irish freedom, they would have seen that in every case they were directed by a secret society—whether in Ireland or in this country, some unseen power decreed the death of traitor or spy, and in every case at least an attempt was made to obey. This secret society spread over both America, England and Ireland, for the agents of one country were always made welcome and given assistance in the others. Is this secret society the Clan-na-Gael? Who can tell? of one country were always made welcome and given assistance in the others. Is this secret noticity the Clan-na-Gae!? Who can tell? The minor branches have taken many names, such as the Irish Invincible Club, which ordered the Phoenix Park murders in 1882. The refugees from the other side of the water have always got a living here without much effort. Here are some of the "executions" decreed by this powerful secret acciety which, whatever it name, for as least one year threw Ireland into chaos. In the Cronin case for the first time a murder has been traced to a large, well organized society with what is called an "open name," for the secret name of the Clan-na-Gae! is the United Brotherhood, and thus is still secretly indicated by the letters V. C. When the crimes in Ireland were traced to secret organizations the latter were generally small affairs, evidently mere camps of one large army. It is compact, well-drilled and well officered, and disobedience means death. The question arises, did the men of Camp Of in Chicago have to obey orders under pain of death? Look at this list given below and see how the orders given in secret have always been carried out even when certain death seemed to threaten the execution of them.

The Bad Earl of Letterias.

The first murders that caused deep feeling through Great Britain were those of the lift of Leiterim in 1878 and of Viscount commonres in 1880. The latter was purely against the contract of the commonres in 1880. The latter was purely against the contract of the contract of the common of the common ountmorres in 1880. The latter was purely agrarian crime. The first was due as uch, perhaps, to the notorious libertinism of a rictum as to his quarrels with his tenantation are included in this list as they were the evidently decreed by a secret tribunal d were bloody in the extreme, as have been arly all those so ordered. No trace of the urderers was every found although large reards were offered.

The year 1832 was indeed a bloody year in claud. Lord Frederick Cavendish, the nief Secretary for Ireland, and the Under cretary. Thomas Burke, were knifed to ath one evening in May while Phoenix Park as crowded with people. There were several her murders ordered by accret societies in 82. S2.
The first of the victims were the Joyce raily due in number, who were shot down their own house on the evening of Aug. 18, ar Cong. in the County Galway. This
