CAMPHOR INHALATION IN CORYZA [Common cold in the head]—Dr. G. E. Dobson writes: 'This very troublesome complaint has scarcely received the attention it deserves; if we take into consideration the great number of sufferers and the serious laryngeal and pulmonary diseases to which it is too often a prelude. Among the host of remedies proposed for its abortive treatment most of which are either of doubtful value or else difficult to procure or apply, or even dangerous to use, not one can be named of which it may be said ply, or even dangerous to use, not one can be named of which it may be said that it is at every one's command, easy of application, unattended with danger of application, unattended with danger of application.

Every Permanent state of mind is largely the effect of habit. Just as we can perform an action so continuously that it comes to be habitual, so we can encourage conditions of mind till they too, come to be habits of thinking and even of feeling. Every thoughtul parent or teacher recognizes this in the training of youth. The child constant ly thwarted or scolded or ridiculed has consantly aroused within him feelings of resentment or discouragement or misery, and these grow to be habitual, and a character for ill temper moroseness or despondency is formed. On the other hand, the child who is wisely treated, whose faculties are brought to the material sufficient to the material sufficient to the material sufficient to the material sufficient treated the materials of the materials of the materials of the materials of the materials and they are at the materials and they are at that was sufficient quantity, and th

It involves within it many things, but they are not improssible to secure, and when we have discovered them it rests with us to enco rage or to discourage them. Happiness is not only a privilege, but a duty, not a mere outward good that may perhaps come to us, but an inward possession which we are bound to attain. When we remember contagious character of happiness, and the strength, courage and hope it excites by its very presence and the power for good it exerts in every direction, we cannot doubt our obligation to attain as much of it as possi-

GRIPS CANADIAN GALLERY

-RT. HON. SIR JOHN A. MAC-No. 5.—HON. H. MERCIER, will be issued

When we call upon Canadians to encourage them to do anything vast. They already have in Gare abundant value for $2 per annum, and has been already stated the Gallery, which alone is worth more than the move therefore is that those who are not already upon our list shall subscribe for Gare. We decline to argue as to whether $2 per year can be spent in any better way intellectually. There is no question to argue. The intelligent citizen of Canada who has that amount per year to invest for his mental pleasure may safely take our word on this point, he will certainly find nothing to buy for the money that will be so satisfactory as a seceipt for a subscription to Gare.
