

LOCAL AND SPECIAL.

The dead and missing in the storm on the Great Lakes now number 301.

Messrs. John and Frank Bath were hunting in the South woods last week and each was successful in capturing a "mosaich of the forest."

A new industry has been started in Yarmouth—the gathering and drying of rockweed. It is shipped to Boston and made into iodine, and is said to be worth $60 a ton.

A London cable says: Nova Scotia apples prices: Gravenstins, 20s. to 24s.; Blenheim, 18s. to 20s.; Kings, 18s. to 22s.; Ribston, 15s. to 18s.; Wealthy, 14s. to 15s.

May Ellis, widow of William E. Ellis, for more than thirty-seven years lightkeeper at Point Prim, Digby, died at her home at Bayview, Nov. 12, aged seventy years.

A sale of fancy farm stock will take place on the premises of D. B. Armstrong, Torbrook Mines, on Saturday next, Nov. 22, at one o'clock. See advertisement in this issue.

Just after going to press last week (Wednesday, the 12th inst.) Mr. Gandy brought to us a bunch of May-flowers in bloom and quite fragrant which he had picked on the same day.

Schooler Luella, Capt. Scott, arrived in port last Wednesday from New York with a load of hard coal for J. H. Longmire & Sons. She cleared on Monday for Port Greville.

Acadia College football team won the match played at Sackville last Friday against Mt. Allison, score 10-0. Acadia, as the result of this game, is now the permanent holder of the King-Richardson trophy.

NOTICE TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE I. O. FORESTERS: If all dues are not paid by Dec. 1st they will be suspended. By order of Chief Ranger, B. N. MESSINGER, Financial Secretary.

Major R. S. Leckie died at Sudbury on Nov. 10th. He was born eighty years ago in Scotland and is survived by a widow, two sons and six daughters. At one time he lived at Torbrook Mines, when interested in the iron mines at that place.

We have received the first number of new Waterford, C. B. Press, established by Major T. M. Seelye, formerly of the Annapolis Spectator. It is a well printed four-page sheet, of seven columns each, and is to be issued weekly on Friday. We wish it success.

The stump of an old electric light or telephone pole and a water shut-off box that protrudes some six inches above the sidewalk in front of Mr. Ainsley Foster's residence, form a dangerous spot to pedestrians, and should be removed at once before someone gets hurt.

We would call the attention of Monitor readers, and particularly those residing in Bear River and vicinity to the new advertisement on page 6 of this issue. We are endeavoring to make this page exclusively a page for Bear River and the Western section of the County.

Large congregations assembled at both services in the Baptist church last Sunday to hear the new Pastor, the Rev. Gordon C. Warren. Both sermons were strong and able discourses. The Bridgetown Baptist church is to be congratulated on securing for its Pastor so efficient a speaker as Mr. Warren.

Wolfville Acadian—Work on the new library building for Acadia University is progressing rapidly considering the very bad weather which the contractor has had to contend with. We understand it is the intention to have the basement completed this fall with the cement floor to cover it before winter sets in.

A Temperance convention will be held in Warren's Hall next Tuesday, Nov. 25th at 2 p.m. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance, and the principal item of business to come before the meeting will be the consideration of the repeal of the Scott Act in this county. All churches and temperance societies are requested to send delegates.

The attention of our readers is called to an extended notice of a special service to be held in St. James' church this evening, commencing at 7.30, and appearing on page one of this issue. The Rector and Wardens wish it to be known that in making this announcement they do not wish to detract from other services usual to Wednesday evening. Their regret is that this is the only evening Mr. Newton can be here. But there are many who do not go to these usual services and to such a cordial invitation is extended to come to this special service.

In compliance with the request of a large number of the patrons of Primrose Theatre, the management have arranged to repeat last Saturday's program, viz. "The Tangled Web." This is the first three-reel photo play ever presented to a Bridgetown audience, and all who had the opportunity of witnessing this wonderful picture were delighted from the inception of the title on the screen till the entire film of over 6000 feet had been shown. The above production has been secured for repetition on Thursday night and it is a safe prediction that a large number will be present.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. J. F. MacDonald is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Forsythe.

Mrs. J. H. McDaniel is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoyt.

Mrs. W. S. Abbott has moved to Kentville and will make her home there.

Mrs. Harry Munde has returned from her visit to her home in St. John.

Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Coldwell are spending a few days in Kempt, Queens County.

Mrs. J. A. Blackadar and Mrs. J. M. Perry of Yarmouth have been guests of Mrs. N. E. Oute.

Miss Louise Ruggles left for Halifax last week, in which city she will remain for the study of music.

Mrs. J. W. Beckwith is in Halifax visiting her son, Dr. Wm. Beckwith, and her daughter in Dartmouth, Mrs. R. W. Elliott.

Mrs. A. O. Price and family have moved to Bridgetown for the winter months, and are occupying the house of Mrs. E. C. Young.

Mrs. Florence Muir is spending the winter in Los Angeles, Cal. She writes that she is delighted with the climate, flowers and fruits.

We are glad to be able to report Capt. Joshua Buckler's health as improving. He is now able to sit up, but as yet not able to get out.

Mr. A. L. Davidson, M. P., was in town yesterday. He was accompanied by Mr. G. W. Dawson, of the government service, who is looking into matters in connection with the site for the new post office.

Outlook: Miss Gladys VanBuskirk is seriously ill of typhoid at the home of Mayor Goucher. It is thought that she must have contracted the disease while on her recent visit to Boston, as the time the disease began to manifest itself would indicate this.

Mr. Chas. Chipman was in Sackville last Friday, and acted in the capacity of coach for the Acadia football team. Mr. Chipman speaks highly of the treatment accorded the Wolfville boys by the students of Mt. Allison and the citizens of Sackville.

Miss Annie Spurr, daughter of Mr. Bernard Spurr, went to Halifax yesterday and will go to the Victoria Hospital for medical treatment. She was accompanied by Dr. M. E. Armstrong. Miss Spurr's position as teacher at the Carleton Corner school is being filled during her absence by Miss Cora Munroe.

Mr. Robert Lowe, who has been assisting Mr. O. P. Covert in his editorial work for the past year and a half, leaves tomorrow for Charlottetown, where he will pursue his studies. He has made a great many friends in Bridgetown, who will regret to learn that he is about to leave us. Mr. Lowe's Sunday School class at St. James' church, met at the home of Mrs. Wanford Dodge last evening and gave Mr. Lowe a surprise and presented him with a Bible Commentary.

Card of Thanks

After vacating the commodious parsonage in Bridgetown we were fortunate in securing comfortable quarters in the equally commodious house in Centrelea, now owned by Mr. Milledge Messenger, but formerly owned and occupied by Mr. Ralph Messenger, of Lawrence town. We thought to live a quiet, retired life here for a few weeks, but what was our surprise last night (Monday) when about fifty or sixty of our friends of Centrelea and vicinity invaded our home to spend the evening with us. The time was pleasantly spent in conversation, recitations and singing. A sumptuous lunch was served by the visitors. Each vied with the other to make the occasion a pleasant one. Chairs were brought by several and three men arrived with an organ kindly loaned by Mrs. Clarke Brooks for the occasion. It was a pleasant surprise and fully appreciated by Mrs. MacNeill and myself. Before going home they left a tangible expression of their friendship in the form of cash and other good things useful in a well ordered household. We take this means of expressing our thanks to one and all.

N. A. MacNEILL.

Entertainment at Recreation Hall

About a dozen musicians of the town wended their way to Recreation Hall on Monday evening and gave a musical program for the entertainment of the inmates of the County Hospital. The program consisted of vocal solos and duets, choruses, violin and cornet solos. The following talent took part: Mrs. H. Ruggles, Mrs. Bustin, Miss Grace Hoyt, Miss Jennie Vroom, Miss Hilda Brittain, Rev. E. Underwood, Messrs. H. T. Handley, F. V. Young, Arthur Dodge and Ralph Brittain. Mr. Harry Ruggles acted in the capacity of chairman. At the close of the program Mr. Hiltz, superintendent of the Hospital, thanked the performers for the evening's entertainment. Owing to the serious illness of Mr. Myers' daughter the inmates of the Home were not present. It has been suggested that during the winter a similar entertainment might be given each month at Recreation Hall, and that each church in the town be responsible for a given month. It is surely would be time well spent in giving enjoyment to the inmates of the County Institutions.

For service, Yorkshire Boar, STANLEY MARSHALL, Clarence
