

BRINGING FURS TO THE FORT.

and such fertility of resource that he was put at the head of affairs in North America, with the title of Governor-in-Chief of Rupert's Land. "It was a great responsibility," writes Professor Bryce, "for young and inexperienced George Simp-