

The New White Grape.

“FRANCIS B. HAYES.”

“A white grape with medium size bunch and berry, quality first rate, and very early.” [Tran. Mass. Horticultural Society, 1874, Part 2, page 154.]

“It has been spoken of in previous reports with much favor, and we have no reason to change our first impression.” [Tran. Mass. Horticultural Society, 1876, Part 2, page 96.]

“It is a white grape of excellent quality.” [Tran. Amer. Pomological Society, 1879, page 96.]

“Is of fine quality and promises to be of much value as a white grape.” [Tran. Amer. Pomological Society, 1881, page 168.]

Awarded a First Class Certificate of Merit. [Mass. Horticultural Society.]

ADDRESS: JOHN B. MOORE & SON, CONCORD, MASS.